MEAD CHAPEL

The chapel, its chimes ringing out in the lengthening twilight, stands on its hilltop for all that Ex-Governor John A. Mead of the Class of 1864 could have desired when he suggested a structure "... expressive of the simplicity and strength of character for which the inhabitants of the valley ... have always been distinguished." Over the portico, before which is a pure sweep of the Green Mountains, is written, "The strength of the hills is His also."
STARR LIBRARY

Six kinds of Vermont marble are built into the main part of the Egbert Starr Library, the bequest of Egbert Starr to Middlebury. His son, Dr. M. Allen Starr, gave the two ample wings—one characterized to students because it contains the much-visited reserve book room, with its constantly changing patronage; and the other as the Abernethy Wing, a dignified retreat of soft lights, fireplace, and cabinet-lined walls, dedicated to American literature.
McCULLOUGH GYMNASIUM

The McCullough Gymnasium, built in 1910, and named for the Hon. John G. McCullough of Bennington, finds within its walls an unduplicated diversity of student life. Basketball men fight for victory, lights are softened for an informal, and precise rows of examination tables are set up, all in a regular sequence of calendar dates. It is a versatile building, this gymnasium, whose door leads to such a variety of college activities.
An alluring period of old-world history is represented in the architectural plan of the Château, built after the design of the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. Inside, as outside, it is French in all the details of furniture and decorations, and the two salons have a grandeur that gives a genuine atmosphere. And those who enter the doorway beneath the thoughtful face of the Spirit of France, cannot but find more confidence in speaking the language.
From the doorway of Pearsons Hall, built for the women of the college largely through the kindness of D. K. Pearsons, is an outlook toward the most familiar landmarks of the surrounding country. Breadloaf and Lincoln Mountains rise high in the skyline, and near by stands Chipman Hill, sheltering the town of Middlebury on the north. Pearsons itself fits perfectly into the sunset skyline of the Adirondacks on the west, for it is a building set on a hill.
Hepburn Hall, the largest of the men’s dormitories, presents a brilliant appearance at night, with its five stories of lighted rooms. The colorful lower campus, the jagged Adirondacks, the geometrical outlines of a flower garden, and the austere whiteness of Mead Chapel are commanded by its windows. Within the building, contrasts are again offered, for one steps from the severity of gray corridors into the informality of the individual suites.

An attempt to write the history of an organization which has existed somewhat less than three years strikes one at the very outset as being not only futile, but suggestive of a paradox. A history, as such, first of all must have a point of view or perspective which only the intervention of time can supply. The glorious three years through which we have passed are still too much with us to be considered from a historical standpoint, yet they have gone—and nothing remains but a few happy memories, some priceless friendships and a feeling of regret that we can live these years but once.

Although deprived of the educational and disciplinary benefits of such ordeals as the freshman hat rush and rain parties, we survived the trials of our freshman year with but little difficulty and few casualties. Perhaps one of the outstanding events of that year was the fight on the eve of the Frosh-Soph football game. North Starr was the battlefield—and '34, though she emerged victorious, was obliged to foot the bills.

Our second year found us, as it finds every class, extremely conscious of a new importance, and heavily weighed with the numberless responsibilities which in the mind of every sophomore rest upon his individual shoulders. The glamorous romance of the freshman year with its new acquaintances, new life and new ideals is a thing to be cherished, for once the cap is forever thrown away and the rules forgotten, college becomes for most of us a serious matter fraught with care and disillusionment.

The present year finds us rounding third and we are for the most part regretful at the prospect of leaving Middlebury. We shall soon move on and '34 will be but a name to those who follow. To them it will represent but one of many similar groups which have gone on to face the more serious considerations of life. To us, however, it will have a meaning infinitely more significant and rich, for the memories associated with our undergraduate years can never completely fade. In fifty years you may read a more interesting and detailed history of the Class of 1934, but it will not deal with the gorgeous sunsets above the Adirondacks; it will not tell of the afterglow which tints the Green Mountain range with purple and crimson in late afternoon; it may not mention the campus foliage, turning from green to red and gold as the seasons change, and it can never even suggest the crystalline splendor of an ice storm which for a morning may transform our campus trees to silvered phantoms glistening in the rising sun.

Our history will be written then. For the present we can offer but dreams and aspirations, the consummation of which in years to come we hope may prove worthy of our college and the ideals for which it stands.

Skaeld to the Viking, tall, blond, and grinning. Lacking fiords and armor he has turned to football and other organized sports, including piano playing.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (2, 3) (M); Basketball (1, 3); Baseball (1, 2) (M); Intramural Sports (2); "M" Club; Blue Key. B.S. Student.
GERALD ORSON BARRETT, ΔKE
Brattleboro, Vermont
Brattleboro High School

A serving of bone dry wit plus a keen sense of the ridiculous adds that certain something which makes a bull-session a bull-session. An observer of this and that.

Freshman Football; Intramural Sports (1); Campus Tryout (1). B.S. Student.

LOUIS MILTON BAUMGARTNER, ΔΣΦ, ΚΦΚ
Ballston Spa, New York
Burnt Hills-Ballston Lake High School

Louis is the financial king of '34. Debits and credits are his playthings and he is to be congratulated on having retained his sanity while managing both the class treasury and Junior week.

Basketball (1, 2, 3); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Interclass Sports (1); Soph Hop Committee; Class Treasurer (3); Chairman Junior Week Committee. B.S. Student.

NELSON BEEBE
Indian Lake, New York
Westport High School

"Buckshot," the student, scientist, and punster, has a remarkable penchant for courses which no one else seems to understand, and is successful in his pursuit of them.

Kaleidoscope Tryout (2); Band (2); Mountain Club (2, 3); Dean's List (2). B.S. Student.
RAY HERMAN BLISS, ΣΦΕ
NEW YORK, NEW YORK
New York University

Bigger and better bull sessions are Ray's aim and his hospitality, wide travels, and skill with the banjo have all aided him in realizing his ambitions.

Intramural Sports (1, 2); Band (2); Dramatics (1). B.S. Student.

EDWARD ANTHONY BUGBEE, BK
STONEHAM, MASSACHUSETTS
Stoneham High School

Track man, journalist, actor, and scholar; a man who tackles big jobs and sees them through. Believes that "A man that is young in years may be old in hours."

Freshman Cross Country (Numerals); Cross Country (2); Track (1); Intramural Sports (3); Soph Hop Committee; Class Nominating Committee (3); Campus Tryout (2), Assistant Editor (3); Kaleidoscope Tryout (2); Choral Club (1); Dramatics (1, 2); Press Club (3); Dean's List (1, 2). B.S. Student.

WALLACE MARTIN CADY, ΔΤ
MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
Middlebury High School

Gad, men! Here's a willing and dependable worker and a capable man either in classroom or on the trail. His earnestness is tempered by his laughter and good fellowship.

Freshman Cross Country; Track (1); Mountain Club (1, 2, 3); Dean's List (2). B.S. Student.
LOUIS GIOBATTISTA CAIAZZA, KΔP
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK
East High School

Greek philosophies, gridiron formations, fine linguistic distinctions, and Neapolitan love songs are but a few of his interests. We envy his tenacity and joie de vivre.

Freshman Football; Football (2, 3); Baseball (1, 2); Tryout Assistant Manager Hockey (2); Interclass Sports (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1); Choral Club (1); Spanish Club (3). B.S. Student.

CHARLES CHENEY CASE, JR., BK
NORTH HOOSICK, NEW YORK
Hoosick Falls High School

Radio City affords but little novelty to one who has lived near Cheney these past three years. If and when Technocracy becomes a reality, we shall expect to find him behind the scenes with his beloved dials and switches.

Interclass Sports (1); Dramatics (1, 2, 3); French Club (1); Mountain Club (2); Wig and Pen. B.S. Student.

JAMES WHITCOMB CHALMERS, ΔΤ
FITCHBURG, MASSACHUSETTS

B.S. Student.
FREDERICK FRANCIS DeBOLD, ΛΣΦ
VALLEY STREAM, NEW YORK
Valley Stream Central High School
The gaiety of the Frenchman plus the stolidity of the German are combined in Freddie's engaging personality. Not the least of his attributes is the fact that he emanates from the same Long Island suburb as Guy Lombardo's unusual melodies.
Tryout Assistant Manager Baseball (2); Interclass Sports (2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Junior Week Committee; Class Nominating Committee (3). B.S. Student.

JESSE MEYER DEUTSCH
WOODRIDGE, NEW YORK
Woodridge High School
A hard worker and real friend. Sounds trite but its the only way to describe Jesse. Always present when most needed. His quietness may hide his light, but it can't extinguish it.
Assistant Circulation Manager KALEIDOSCOPE; Dramatics (2); Entertainment Course Committee (3); Dean's List (2). B.S. Student.

NATT LINCOLN DIVOLL, ΔΚΕ
BELLOWS FALLS, VERMONT
Bellows Falls High School
"Natt" in name and natty in attire, always present at any function of a social nature is this gay young Beau Brummell. Began life as a high school debater, but never admits it.
Track (2); Interfraternity Council (3). A.B. Student.
CHARLES NELSON DUBOIS, KAP, IIΔΕ, KΦΚ
NEWBURY, VERMONT
Newbury High School

A machine when there’s work to be done, but never too busy not to enjoy friendship and laughter, Charlie’s greatness lies in his versatility.

Intramural Sports (1); Class President (3); Treasurer Junior Week; Student Council (2); Literary Editor KALEIDOSCOPE; Editor-in-Chief “1932 Handbook”; Business Tryout Campus (1, 2), Assistant Business Manager (3); Band (1, 2, 3); English Club (3); Mountain Club (3); Liberal Club (3); Dean’s List (1, 2); Secretary Pi Delta Epsilon (3); Secretary Kappa Phi Kappa (3).

RALPH HENRY DUMAS, ΑΣΦ, IIΔΕ
DUDLEY, MASSACHUSETTS
Bartlett High School

Gathering KALEID subscriptions in the fall, gathering hockey equipment in the winter, and gathering grounders in the spring, yet Ralph is not a grasping individual.

Assistant Manager Hockey (3); Baseball (1, 2) (M); Frosh Frolic Committee; Business Manager KALEIDOSCOPE (3); "M" Club, Secretary-Treasurer (3); Liberal Club (3); Literati Ball Committee (3); Blue Key. B.S. Student.

MARTIN THOMAS DWYER, ΑΣΦ, KΦΚ
LAKE PLACID, NEW YORK
Lake Placid High School

Hockey player, ski jumper, book collector and rabbit hunter, this lusty Hibernian wit has made himself an indispensable part of our college organization.

Freshman Football; Winter Sports (1, 2) (M); Baseball (2); Hockey (2) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2). B.S. Student.
EUGENE GRANVILLE EMBLER, KΔP, KΦK
NEWBURGH, NEW YORK
Newburgh Free Academy

Once again we have to thank Newburgh for contributing to our group. Smiling, good-natured and understanding, Gene fills a definite place in our otherwise mundane lives.

Tryout Assistant Manager Baseball (2), B.S. Student.

ARMAS VICTOR ERKKILA, ΛΣΦ
FITCHBURG, MASSACHUSETTS
Fitchburg High School

“Erkkie” is heard by more people than anyone else in college. The office of chimer has its difficulties, but anyway it keeps him in condition for javelin hurling.

Track (1, 2) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2); Band (1); “M” Club; German Club (3); Dean’s List (1, 2), B.S. Student.

GEORGE RANDOLPH ERSKINE, ΣΦΕ
CHESHIRE, CONNECTICUT
New Haven High School

“Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord.” Bearing gun, bow, or camera he stalks anything from deer to campus buildings, pausing the while to debate on any given question.

EMILIO PHILLIP FERRARI, ΔΤ
Proctor, Vermont
Proctor High School

The court jester, with the motley concealing his real ability. Reliever of tedium, be it in laboratory or on trips. Can make even a pun funny.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (2, 3); Track (1, 2, 3); Dramatics (1, 2); French Club (1); Spanish Club (2); German Club (3). B.S. Student.

JAMES BLANCHARD FISH, JR.
Buffalo, New York
Lafayette High School

The rationalist, demon proofreader, and mathematician, Jim lives his own life, enjoys his own variety of humor, and exercises his own abilities.

Campus Tryout (1), News Staff (2), Assistant Editor (3); Managing Editor KALEIDOSCOPE; Press Club (2, 3); Mountain Club (2); Liberal Club (3); Dean’s List (1, 2). B.S. Student.

ALLEN MACOMBER FLAGG, ΔΤ
Middlebury, Vermont
Middlebury High School

A poker face, hiding a many-sided personality, carries Al to success in many fields. Steadiness personified. Never openly ambitious yet accomplishing much.

Tennis (1, 2) (M); Basketball (2, 3); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Interclass Sports (1, 2); Men’s Individual Tennis Champion (1, 2); Dean’s List (1). B.S. Student.
KASTEN JOSEPH GAILIUS
WATERBURY, CONNECTICUT
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Pipe and rifle. Racquet and T-square. Original and positive in his opinions, because of his care in arriving at them. A modern version of Thoreau, perhaps?
Track (2); Intramural Sports (2, 3); Class Nominating Committee (3); Liberal Club (3). B.S. Student.

TRAVIS EDWARD HARRIS, BK
STATEN ISLAND, NEW YORK
Curtis High School
Working on publications, maintaining his reputation as a social lion, and soloing for the Glee Club take up most of "Slim's" time. Always a source of a good song.
Campus Tryout (1); Organizations Editor Kaleidoscope; Choral Club (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Choir (3); Mountain Club (2, 3). B.S. Student.

WALTER HENKEN, KAP
ELMONT, NEW YORK
New York University
Combining his metropolitan accent with a ready smile and cheery greeting, Wally has what some people call smoothness and others more accurately term personality.
B.S. Student.
CHARLES ATWOOD HICKCOX, KAP
WATERTOWN, CONNECTICUT
Watertown High School

Boots and pack are the most characteristic things about "Chow." Swings a mean geological hammer in his serious moments. Beside campfire or radiator, he is equally merry.

Hockey (1, 3); Baseball (1); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Interclass Sports (1); Mountain Club (2, 3). B.S. Student.

CURTISS BRONSON HICKCOX, KAP
WATERTOWN, CONNECTICUT
Watertown High School

Red-headed and vigorous, yet serious minded withal is this ambitious youth who aspires to the practice of medicine. One trusts that he may not be too strongly influenced by family ties.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (2); Tryout Assistant Manager Basketball (2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Mountain Club (2, 3). Treasurer (3). B.S. Student.

WINSLOW RANDOLPH HODGDON, ΛΚΕ
BELLOWS FALLS, VERMONT
Kimball Union Academy

Collegiate and more collegiate. Black hair and deep dark eyes and ready smile. Ever smooth, self-contained, and unruffled. That’s "Winnie."

Freshman Football (Numerals); Intramural Sports (3); Frosh Frolic Committee. A.B. Student.
DOUGLAS ETTERSHAND HOWIE, 24E
EAST ORANGE, NEW JERSEY
East Orange High School
A highlander from East Orange, well-mannered and quiet. Subtly humorous, Doug is the man who ever rides the crest of the wave.
Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Band (1, 2); Mountain Club (3). B.S. Student.

JOHN ANSON HURD
NEW YORK, NEW YORK
Browning School
Imperturbable, nonchalant, and individualistic, Anse is more than just another humorist. Military science and things mechanical divide his interests. Certain of a letter in polo if only Middlebury boasted of such a team.
B.S. Student.

EMERY THOMAS HUTCHINS, XR
OGUNQUIT, MAINE
Wells High School
Conservative and scholarly, though sufficiently in the midst of things to discuss with authority any topic of the day, Hutch is a most interesting companion and stimulating conversationalist.
Intramural Sports (3); Glee Club (2); Dramatics (1, 2, 3); English Club; Wig and Pen. B.S. Student.
JAMES WILBERT HUTTON, ΣΦΕ
MELROSE, MASSACHUSETTS
Huntington School

Pianist, artist, singer, Will’s assortment of accomplishments combined with his personality no less pleasing explain his popularity about the campus.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Soph Hop Committee; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); B.S. Student.

DOUGLAS LAW JOCelyn, ΧΨ
WALDEN, NEW YORK
Walden High School

Footballer, mountain climber, social lion and janitor, “Doug” manages to combine business with pleasure to such a degree that he maintains the proper balance.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (2, 3) (M); Class President (1); Soph Hop Committee; Junior Week Committee; Mountain Club Treasurer (2), Equipment Manager (3); Student Council (1); Interfraternity Council (3); Alumni Award (3); Blue Key Secretary-Treasurer (3). B.S. Student.

HOWARD JAMES KELLY, ΧΨ
MOUNT VERNON, NEW YORK
Mount Vernon High School

Believe it or not here is a Kelly who takes life seriously. Some day we’re afraid “Pat” will fly, somnambulate, or snowshoe, back to California.

Cross Country (3); Intramural Sports (2, 3); Campus Tryout (2). B.S. Student.
FRANK KNIGHT LOCKE, KΔP
MONTPELIER, VERMONT
Montpelier Seminary
Tall, good-looking, genial and always smiling, our friend from the Capitol City not only plays a good game of hockey, but has a snappy comeback for the keenest wit.
Freshman Cross Country (Numerals); Hockey (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1, 2); Frosh Frolic Committee; Choral Club (1); Mountain Club (3). B.S. Student.

CARL MURRAY LORENZ, ΔΥ
EAST ORANGE, NEW JERSEY
East Orange High School
From earnest efficiency to weird New Jersey humor, all in a moment. He inhabited Hepburn for two years but the building still stands.
Assistant Manager Freshman Football (1); Assistant Manager Track (3); Intramural Sports (3); Tryout Business Staff Campus (1, 2); Assistant Business Manager (3); Spanish Club (2). B.S. Student.

LESTER HERMAN LOVELL, ΔΚΕ
BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT
Brattleboro High School
Lo, the “Deerslayer.” His only regret is that he can’t combine hunting with his javelin hurling activities. Reputed to have captured deer by his oratory.
Track (1, 2, 3) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Third Parker Prize Speaker; Second Merrill Prize Speaker. B.S. Student.
CLIFFORD FRANK McLURE, KAP
BOLTONVILLE, VERMONT
Woodsville High School

Judging from the extra-curricular activity list of this canny Scot, we may safely expect the legal career toward which he is working to resolve itself simply into a matter of "words and music."

Baseball (2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Circulation Manager Kaleidoscope; Band (1, 2, 3); Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (3). B.S. Student.

DONALD ROSS MacQUIVEY, ΔKE
WENDELL, IDAHO
Wendell High School

The little boy from the big West. Left his six-gun and horse at Stanford. Came East with cornet and typewriter. Former now muted, but latter still clicks on.

Band (2, 3); Orchestra (2, 3); Dramatics (3); German Club. B.S. Student.

ABRAHAM MANELL
CHELSEA, MASSACHUSETTS
Chelsea High School

Whether it is a bit of philosophy from the Greek or an epigram from Emerson, Abe can exhaust its possibilities as a subject for discussion. A philosopher, musician, and linguist are combined in this energetic student.

Glee Club (3); Choral Club (3); French Club (1); English Club (3); German Club (3). B.S. Student.
WILLIAM GILES MATTESON, JR., ΔΤ
ALBANY, NEW YORK
Albany Academy
Prefers to move in straight lines. Boots and snowshoes and activity. His heartiness makes friends; everything about him keeps them. Welcome in the best bull-sessions.
Freshman Cheerleader (1); Varsity Cheerleader (2, 3); Assistant Manager Tennis (3); Interclass Football (1); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Tryout Business Staff Campus (1, 2), Assistant Business Manager (3); Assistant Circulation Manager KALEIDOSCOPE (3); Mountain Club (1, 2, 3); German Club (1, 3). B.S. Student.

NORMAN LEDBURY MELBYE, ΔΤ
WELLESLEY HILLS, MASSACHUSETTS
Williston Academy
On the ice or the dance floor, co-ordination of movement. Always capable and friendly in a quiet way. Nicknamed "Rugged" for good reasons.
Hockey (1, 2, 3) (M); Assistant Manager Football (3); Class Nominating Committee (3); "M" Club; Blue Key. B.S. Student.

RAYMOND BERTRAND MERCIER
GREENSBORO, VERMONT
Greensboro High School
Quiet and thoughtful is Ray. His conscientious application and serious attitude toward his work are qualities which should carry him a long way on the road to success.
Mountain Club (3); French Club (3). A.B. Student.
RAYMOND KENNETH MINER, KΔP
BRANDON, VERMONT
Brandon High School

A man of parts is “Kenny,” whose brown eyes hold fascinating charm—even when seen in a mirror. If it is a round of golf one is wanting, “Ken” is the answer to his prayer for he swings a mean driver.

Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Chairman Soph Hop Committee; Junior Week Committee; Band (1, 2, 3). B.S. Student.

HOWARD McCOY MUNFORD, XΨ
SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS
Central High School

The track, playhouse and music studio occupy “Howie’s” spare moments and in each of these, as in the classroom, he acquits himself as befits a gentleman and a scholar.

Track (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1, 2); Dramatics (3). B.S. Student.

WILLIAM JOHN MURPHY, KΔP, ΚΦΚ
OAKVILLE, CONNECTICUT
Watertown High School

The very quintessence of wit, an everlasting faith in his fellow men, a generosity which knows no limit, and an Irish heart true as the day is long, are but a few of the qualities for which we love “Murph.”

Baseball (1) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Interfraternity Council (3). B.S. Student.
THOMAS ROBERT NOONAN, ΔΤ
BUFFALO, NEW YORK
Lafayette High School

Equally at home with slide-rule, foil, chess board, or beaker. Sometimes an unconventional Irishman, other times a staid Scot.

Freshman Football; Interclass Sports (1, 2); Intramural Sports (2, 3); Campus Reporter (1), Campus News Staff (2); Editor-in-Chief KALEIDOSCOPE; Parker Prize Speaking Contest; Fourth Merrill Prize Speaker; Mountain Club (1, 2, 3); Liberal Club (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Dean’s List (1, 2). B.S. Student.

EVALD BERNHARD OLSON, KΔP, KΦK
WASHINGTON DEPOT, CONNECTICUT
Gunnery School

Six feet and a half of Swedish persistence, equanimity, honest sincerity and good nature is sufficient justification for Olie’s popularity on our campus.

Basketball (1, 2, 3); Football (2); Baseball (1, 2, 3) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Assistant Circulation Manager KALEIDOSCOPE; “M” Club. B.S. Student.

WYMAN WEST PARKER, XY
RUTHERFORD, NEW JERSEY
Norwich University

“Wy” forsook the horse marines after two years to enjoy the quiet, academic atmosphere of Middlebury. His time is divided between the mountain campus and the library.

B.S. Student.
WILLIAM HENRY PATTERSON, ΔΤ
ANTRIM, NEW HAMPSHIRE
Antrim High School

A winning personality, coupled with plenty of drive, has won Bill a managership and, what is worth more, an enviable reputation among those who know him best.

Assistant Manager Basketball (3); Intramural Sports (1, 3); Junior Week Committee; Campus Tryout (1), News Staff (2); Sports Editor KALEIDOSCOPE. A.B. Student.

STANLEY VICTOR PETERSON, ΚΔΦ, ΚΦΚ
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK
East High School

If by any chance a high tenor voice is heard singing “Die Lorelei” in the German, but with a decided Swedish accent, one may conclude that “Pete” has left the chem lab long enough for a little relaxation.

Intramural Sports (1); German Club (3); Dean’s List (1, 2). B.S. Student.

HILLES RYAN PICKENS, JR., ΔΤ
MONTREAL, CANADA
Deerfield Academy

A commanding air, backed by versatile ability in sports and music. Audacity in bluffing equalled only by ability to make good when called.

Hockey (1, 2) (M); Golf (2) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); “M” Club. B.S. Student.
ANDREW WILLIAM REID, XΨ
SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS
Central High School

A canny Scot, dependable, hard-working and conscientious is "Andy." Studies, football and a furnace take up most of his time yet his dry humor is well known about the hill.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (2, 3) (M); Junior Week Committee.
B.S. Student.

JOHN ANDREW REILLY, BK
GREENFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS
Greenfield High School

The man with the comeback. Forgiven his saxophone because of his Celtic wit. Proves that wit and wisdom sometimes choose strange bedfellows.

Assistant Manager Cross Country (3); Intramural Sports (1, 2); Band (1, 2, 3).
B.S. Student.

VICTOR JOSEPH RICCIO, BK
RYE, NEW YORK
Rye High School

Blocked punts, three hundred yard drives, hearty greetings, all are part and parcel of "Ric." Hepburn Commons was also the scene of some notable achievements.

Freshman Football (Numerals); Football (3) (M), Captain-Elect (3); Baseball (1); Track (2); Golf (2, 3), Captain (3); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Band (1, 2, 3); Athletic Council (3). B.S. Student.
JOHN STILLMAN RICE, JR., ΣΦΕ
RIDGEWOOD, NEW JERSEY
Ridgewood High School
Leader of water fights, securer of advertising contracts, boxer of ability, Jack occupies his own niche in the gallery of campus types and patterns.
Intramural Sports (1, 2); Advertising Manager Kaleidoscope; Mountain Club (3). B.S. Student.

EDWARD CHARLES ROLLER, ΔΤ
ELIZABETH, NEW JERSEY
Pingry School
The bridge player who seldom errs, the humorist who never repeats himself, the lad who misses few social functions; in summation, a real gentleman.
Freshman Football; Interclass Sports (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); German Club (3). B.S. Student.

RUSSELL LYMAN ROOT, BK, ΚΦΚ
BUFFALO, NEW YORK
Lafayette High School
"Russ" has three loves—comfort, a trumpet, and apparently, dances. Somehow he must slip in a little study if his marks are any criterion.
Tryout Assistant Manager Tennis (2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Class Editor Kaleidoscope; Dramatics (2); Band (2, 3); Mountain Club (2, 3); Dean's List (1, 2). B.S. Student.
KENNETH WALKER RUDD, ΔΚΕ
GLENBROOK, CONNECTICUT
Clemson Agricultural College

Transit and steel tape occupy his time in fall and spring but his drives and chops find the white lines without the use of such complicated instruments.

Intramural Sports (2, 3); Glee Club (2). B.S. Student.

HARLOW RUSSELL, ΣΦΕ
CLIFTONDALE, MASSACHUSETTS
Huntington School

A typical Bostonian, a staunch defender of capitalism, an able executive and manager, "Russ" still has time for his musical activities and other amusements.

Chairman Class Constitution Committee (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 3), Assistant Manager (3); Choral Club (1, 2); Mountain Club (1); German Club (3); Liberal Club (3). B.S. Student.

VINCENT FREDERICK SARGENT
GEORGETOWN, MASSACHUSETTS
Framingham High School

To those who have never heard "Vin" play it would be useless to try to describe his talent. The chapel organ finds a new voice at his touch.

Glee Club (1); Orchestra (2, 3); College Ensemble (3); English Club (3); Dean's List (1, 2). A.B. Student.
GEORGE THEODORE SCHAUZ, ΔΤ
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK
East High School

Baseball fan and staunch defender of Rochester. Never obvious but always present, even when there's work to be done. A graduate of Painter, with honors.

Interclass Sports (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3). B.S. Student.

JOHN SCHOONMAKER, ΧΨ
MARLBORO, NEW YORK
Walden High School

A trumpeter par excellence, a track man of marked ability, and a bon vivant of parts, “Schoonie” has a philosophy of life which is the envy of his comrades.

Track (1, 2) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Class Treasurer (2); Band (1). B.S. Student.

JAMES LEROY SEARS, ΒΨ
MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
Middlebury High School

A thing to marvel at is the manner in which this diminutive runner covers the mile, two-mile and cross-country distances. Surely when “Jimmie” is out to win, even the wing-footed Mercury may not pass him.

Freshman Cross Country (Numerals); Track (1, 2, 3) (M); Cross Country (2, 3) (M), Captain-elect (3); Band (1). B.S. Student.
LEON WILLIAM SEARS, B\Phi
MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
Middlebury High School

One contemplates Leon’s progress in the field of music and asks “What next?” He came to us playing a cornet, passed it up for a baritone and now puts the “oomp” into “oompah” with a bass horn.

Freshman Cross Country (Numerals); Orchestra (2, 3); Band (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (3). B.S. Student.

CARL WILLIAM SEYMOUR
WHITEFIELD, NEW HAMPSHIRE
Whitefield High School

Whether it is a matter of tearing around the cross-country course or carrying bags at the Inn, Carl is always found doing his part and doing it well.

Freshman Cross Country (Numerals); Cross Country (2, 3) (M); Track (1, 2); Intramural Sports (1). B.S. Student.

ROBERT DANIEL SMITH, A\Sigma\Phi
BRISTOL, VERMONT
Troy Conference Academy

“Smittie” out-Coolidges Cal, but when he does speak, no one “Durst crack a jest with him.” In due time we may learn from him some of the beauties of abstract mathematical theory.

Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3). B.S. Student.
FRANCIS BROMLEY SPRAGUE, BΨ
AUSABLE FORKS, NEW YORK
Ausable Forks High School

If it is music one is wanting, "Fran" is the man who can supply it. This versatile youth served in no less than three capacities at the Norwich game last fall: Drum major, cheerleader and piccolo player—and remember the score!

Interclass Sports (1); Intramural Sports (2, 3); Constitution Committee (1); Soph Hop Committee; College Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Band (1, 2, 3); Assistant Manager (3); College Ensemble (2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Student Director (3); Choral Club (3); Dramatics (1, 2); Dean's List (1, 2). B.S. Student.

EDWARD WILLIAM STEFANIAK, ΛΨΦ, ΚΠΚ
WEBSTER, MASSACHUSETTS
Worcester Academy

"Stef" is a veritable Punchinello but his clowning is only a disguise. If you don't think he is a hard worker, just recall the game he pitched against Vermont last spring.

Freshman Football; Football (2, 3); Baseball (1, 2) (M); "M" Club; Liberal Club (3). B.S. Student.

FREDERICK JAMES STOFFEL, BΨ
HEMPSTEAD, NEW YORK
Hempstead High School

This quiet, unassuming youth was an ardent member of Professor Schmidt's geology class last year. Perhaps it was that Bristol Cave trip which led him to join the Mountain club.

Interclass Sports (1); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Soph Hop Committee; Campus Tryout (1); Mountain Club (2, 3). B.S. Student.
WILLIAM DEMOTT STULL
MADISON, NEW JERSEY
Madison High School

Chasing mosquitoes in the summer and misguided biology students during the college year gives this budding scientist plenty to occupy his time. No doubt his freshman cross-country training stands him in good stead.

Freshman Cross Country; Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Campus Tryout (1, 2); Mountain Club (2, 3); B.S. Student.

REYNOLD HERBERT SUSS
EAST ORANGE, NEW JERSEY
Burr and Burton Seminary

An artist's ability and talent without artistic temperament make the "Major" a valuable man. Unofficial activities include wrestling with math and horses. Hepburn's best bull-sessions welcome him.

Art Editor KALEIDOSCOPE; B.S. Student.

PHELPS NASH SWETT, JR., AKE
MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
Middlebury High School

Beware the blond menace! He approaches on skates with brandished hockey stick or attacks with torrid serves. Other reasons for title too apparent to mention.

Tennis (1, 2); Hockey (1, 2) (M); Intramural Sports (1, 2); Soph Hop Committee; "M" Club; B.S. Student.
FLOYD L. TAYLOR, BK
SUMMERFIELD, OHIO
Summerfield High School

We seem to remember “Rinkus” telling us that he didn’t have time. He divides himself into a runner, clerk, or chemist and reunites himself into a harmonious whole with ease.

Freshman Cross Country; Cross Country (2, 3) (M); Tryout Assistant Manager Basketball (2); Track (2); Intramural Sports (1, 2, 3); Campus Tryout (2); Kaleidoscope Tryout (2); Press Club Tryout (2); Choral Club (2); Merrill Prize Speaking Contest; Mountain Club (2); German Club (3); Interfraternity Council (3). FRATERNITIES
Interfraternity Council

Each fraternity on the campus is represented in the Interfraternity Council by two of its members, one senior, and one junior. This body governs and supervises relations between the fraternities, making and enforcing any necessary rules.

The organization is most active during rushing season and has done much to eliminate the more undesirable features of this period. This year the plan of deferred rushing inaugurated a year ago was again in effect and on the whole proved to be satisfactory, both to fraternities and to freshmen.

The Panhellenic Association is an organization established for the maintenance of friendly feelings between the several sororities on campus.

In the past, this body has been composed of a senior and a junior delegate from each chapter. But, this year, the membership of the council has been extended to include an alumna representative from each sorority. The officers receive their positions by rotation.

Actually, the main function of the council is to determine rushing rules and to decide impartially all matters pertaining to the sororities as a whole.

Phi Beta Kappa

Membership in Phi Beta Kappa is the highest scholastic honor which the college can bestow. This national honorary scholastic fraternity was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776. The Middlebury chapter, Beta of Vermont, was founded in 1869. The requirements for membership are an average of 89 per cent for six semesters, or 87 3/4 per cent for eight semesters. Only one-fifth of each senior class may be admitted, men and women being considered separately.

The Middlebury chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha was founded in 1920. Women were admitted into the fraternity the following year. The national chapter dates back to 1908 when it was founded at Annapolis. Its purpose is to promote debating and to foster public speaking. Members are admitted into this fraternity upon their participation in one or more intercollegiate debates or oratorical contests. The fraternity takes charge of all debates held in Middlebury and entertains the visiting debaters. Tau Kappa Alpha frequently holds exhibition debates in various parts of the state as part of its program. It has been found advantageous for Vermont school authorities to call upon members of the Vermont chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha to take part in the judging of their debates, for thus competent debaters make the decisions.

Kappa Phi Kappa

Kappa Phi Kappa, national education fraternity, has for its purpose the stimulation of interest in the teaching profession. The local chapter was established at Middlebury in 1925. Only undergraduate men who have taken at least two courses in the education department are eligible for election to membership. This year the organization has met twice each month. Meetings usually include a talk by some member of the faculty, after which a discussion of educational problems is held.

During the past few years Middlebury has come into prominence as a college for teachers. Middlebury has, in fact, come to be considered as the equal to many of those institutions whose sole aim is the training of educators. Kappa Phi Kappa intends to do all in its power to maintain this high standard in educational work.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary fraternity devoted to the interests of journalism, was established at Middlebury in 1930. It replaced a former local society, Phi Pi Epsilon. Membership is limited to those men who have been editors or business managers of recognized college publications or who have served for two years on The Campus. Among the various functions of this organization have been the establishment of the KALEIDOSCOPE system of tryouts and the preparation of The Campus style-sheet. Programs for home games are issued by this group, which also selects the editor and business manager of the Middlebury "Handbook." Frequently the fraternity conducts contests for the secondary school publications of the state.

Published annually by the junior class, the KALEIDOSCOPE is, in certain respects, unique among college publications. Usually the book makes its appearance immediately before Junior Week. The preparation of the annual is in the hands of a board, composed of members of the junior class, assisted by sophomore tryouts.

Two years ago a system of selecting members of the board was put into practice by Pi Delta Epsilon. Those desiring positions serve as assistants in the departments of their choice during their sophomore year. In March, a competitive examination is held under the supervision of a committee composed of members of Pi Delta Epsilon and women officers of the KALEIDOSCOPE board. Upon the results of this test and upon the quality of work done during the year, recommendations for the four major positions are made by this committee. An editor and business manager from the men's college and an associate editor and business manager from the women's college are elected by the class from those nominated by the committee. These four officers select their assistants subject to the approval of the board of the preceding year.

Originally the KALEIDOSCOPE was a small review of the college year, almost entirely literary in character. Since its first appearance, in 1874, it has changed greatly, for although it is still essentially a review and record of events, it has expanded and changed its manner of treatment. New features have been added from time to time, with a trend to a more pictorial presentation.

The thirty-eighth edition, which is the production of the Class of '34, has attempted, naturally, to surpass the annuals of previous years. To secure this end, new layouts have been introduced, the typography has been changed, the feature section enlarged, and a new color treatment used throughout the book. Although continuity of art work has been secured as far as possible on both main and sub-division pages, no definite theme has been chosen for the book. An attempt has been made, however, to recall the meaning of the title of the book and the hexagonal designs appearing on title and division pages represent, in a highly conventionalized manner, the patterns formed in a kaleidoscope.

Since subscription to the KALEIDOSCOPE is entirely voluntary, the income of the book is influenced greatly by prevailing economic conditions. This year, especially, the need of a more adequate way of financing the book was felt keenly. It has been possible to publish this yearbook only through the whole-hearted support of the student body and especially of the junior class.

The Middlebury Campus is the official undergraduate newspaper of Middlebury College. It was first published October 28, 1830, as The Undergraduate, a small quarterly magazine containing literary articles and items of world interest to the exclusion of college news. Publication was stopped in 1831 for more than forty years and was not resumed until 1876 when The Undergraduate again appeared and continued to come out regularly until 1899. After a lapse of six years publication was begun again, this time in monthly magazine form but with news content relating primarily to the college. The new periodical was called The Middlebury Campus. In 1913 a four-page, four-column paper was published and in 1922, D. Haydn Parry, '24, reorganized the journal to its present five-column size and made it a weekly publication. In 1927 an insert sheet was added, thus establishing the present weekly six-page paper.

A board divided into the editorial and business staffs publishes the Campus. Positions on the board are secured by competition beginning early in the freshmen year. By means of a definite system of training, tryouts are acquainted with the different phases of newspaper work. Elections to the board are made in March with members of the sophomore class elected as assistant editors and assistant managers and with the heads of the departments coming from the junior class.

As well as containing news of undergraduate life, feature articles, and alumni items, the Campus seeks to influence undergraduate opinion through the medium of the editorial column. During the past year the Campus editorial policy has been concerned with four major subjects.

The real meaning of a liberal education was the first of these, the advantages which Middlebury offers toward acquiring such an education being pointed out.

That the student should take an interest in world affairs has been frequently affirmed. In the first editorial of the Campus year the formation of a club to discuss current world problems was noted. This organization was added later to the roster of Middlebury societies.

A reform of honor societies and a change in certain activity groups was also advocated by the Campus. Under this head the problem of abolishing sororities was considered, the Campus coming out strongly for the retention of the sorority system.

An examination reform was also desired and a definite method for preparing for the comprehensives was set forth, the substance of these recommendations being accepted by the faculty.

Of the editorials of the thirty issues of the past year twenty dealt with matters relating to the editorial policy and ten with events from the daily news.
The Saxonian, literary magazine of the college, is a periodical issued six times during the year. It was founded in 1921 under the auspices of the English club and was named in honor of John Godfrey Saxe, a graduate of Middlebury in the Class of 1839 and well-known as a poet.

The material published in the magazine is taken from voluntary contributions of the student body, and election to the editorial staff is made on the basis of literary ability as exhibited in work which is chosen for publication. The board is elected yearly and is assisted by a member of the faculty.

Early in the month of September there comes to every prospective Middlebury man and woman a small, unpretentious volume officially known as the "Middlebury College Handbook." But gradually the Handbook attaches to itself the name of "Freshman Bible." The purpose of the Handbook is to give its reader information about the college which will help him to become "Midd-wise."

The Handbook includes a history of the college, an explanation of Middlebury traditions, freshman pointers, rushing rules, information concerning all campus activities, constitutions and by-laws of the Undergraduate Association and Student Government Association, and a directory of administrative officers and faculty members. The section containing the Middlebury songs and cheers is responsible for the prominence of the volume at the first rallies.

The Handbook is made possible by contributions from Pi Delta Epsilon, the Women’s Athletic Association, the Student Government Association, and the Panhellenic Association, and by the advertising of local merchants.

The Undergraduate Association

The Undergraduate Association is composed of all the members of the men's college. The executive body of the association is the Student Council.

The purpose of the group is to preserve the continuity of all customs and activities beneficial to a vigorous college life and to promote a spirit of loyalty and good fellowship in the men's college. To this end, all undergraduate organizations are under the control of the Undergraduate Association, and new organizations must meet with its approval.

The president is elected by a majority vote of the entire men's college from a list of nominees made up by a committee of seniors composed of one representative from each fraternity and one from the neutral group. The vice-president, secretary, and treasurer are elected by the Student Council from their own number. Meetings may be called at the discretion of the president, the Student Council, or by a petition of two-fifths of the membership.

Student Life Committee

The Student Life Committee considers both the student and the faculty point of view regarding the social functions of the college. Its membership consists of the president of the Undergraduate Association, the president of the Student Government Association, the dean of the men’s college, the dean of the women’s college, and a faculty representative appointed by the president.

Every contemplated social function must be approved by this group, and college dances, entertainments, and all other social gatherings must obey the regulations issued. Schedules of debates, plays, glee club trips and all similar functions are presented for the committee’s approval and no new organization may be established except by its consent.

In solving the social problems this organization has been very successful and student cooperation with its decisions has been good.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association of the Women’s College at Middlebury is the self-governing organization, composed of all the members of the college. The legislative power is placed in the association as a whole, but the executive power is invested in a council consisting of the officers of the association, one representative from each class, and two representatives for the house chairmen.

The association acts not only as the governing body of the Women’s College but also as a medium between the administration and the student body. It assists in carrying out the traditional customs of the college and promotes a finer type of social atmosphere. The purpose of the Student Government Association is to encourage self-control, responsibility, and loyalty.

The Student Council

The Student Council is the executive body of the Undergraduate Association. It supervises the activities and policies of all undergraduate organizations, and also the conduct of individuals in the men’s college. It may make, from time to time, recommendations relative to affairs in the men’s college, and, upon the approval of the Undergraduate Association, advise with the president concerning the effecting of such recommendations.

The decisions of the council relative to the activities of any undergraduate organization or of individuals in the men’s college are executed by the president of the Undergraduate Association who is ex officio chairman of the council.

The membership is comprised of the president of the Undergraduate Association, the presidents of the four classes, the presidents of Waubanakee and Blue Key, and a representative from Pi Delta Epsilon.

Waubanakee

Waubanakee is a self-perpetuating honorary society founded in 1911. Membership in it is the highest recognition which Middlebury bestows for leadership and service in extra-curricular activities.

Election to Waubanakee takes place in the latter part of the junior year. Pledging, or tapping, comes at the beginning of Junior Week. This ceremony is unique and is of great interest to the entire college.

The insignia is a gold pin in the likeness of a tomahawk. Members are privileged to wear a black felt hat embroidered with this design in red.

The Banshee chapter of Mortar Board was installed at Middlebury, May 27, 1928, replacing a local society established here in 1912. The members may not exceed twelve in number and are to be most representative of Middlebury women. They are chosen with regard to their service, scholarship and leadership, the qualities which Mortar Board is pledged to promote. Mortar Board purposes to provide for co-operation between women's honorary societies, to promote college loyalty, and to encourage a finer type of college woman.

Every year Mortar Board plans a service program by which it may carry out its purposes. During this year it has sponsored a Play Day for freshmen in the fall and a similar one for seniors in the spring. It plans to decrease over-organization within the college. It also has continued the program of last year in attempting closer connections with the chapter at the University of Vermont, co-operation with the dean of women in vocational guidance work, and in sponsoring talks by worthwhile speakers who visit the college.

In the spring of 1930 need was felt for a special body whose duty it would be to insure visiting athletic teams a cordial welcome. Members of teams had been impressed with the reception they were given by the Key societies in other colleges, and as a result Blue Key was founded in Middlebury. Its establishment brought about the abandonment of Sage and Delta Tau, junior and sophomore honorary societies. Blue Key is a self-perpetuating society, elections being held each year after the Easter recess. Active membership continues until graduation.

Although its most important duty is the welcoming of visiting teams, the organization also holds itself responsible for the performance of all possible services for the general good of the college. Blue Key has charge of the sale of Frosh hats, rule cards, and athletic programs, thus obtaining the funds necessary to carry on its work. It also holds informals at the gym, the revenue from which forms an important part of its total income. Through its service to the college as a whole, and the efficient way it has discharged its special function, the Key has become one of the most influential and respected organizations of the men's college.

“M” Club

The “M” Club at Middlebury was founded in 1926. The membership is made up of alumni and undergraduates who have won an “M” in any major sport. Meetings are held every month by the undergraduate members.

The duties of this organization consist in procuring the letters and sweaters for the athletes, and maintaining a friendly spirit in all athletic contests at Middlebury.

At various times during the year the club holds dances in the gym to help defray its expenses. Since its founding, the “M” Club has met with high recognition, and has played an important part in the athletic life at Middlebury.

The Band

The band continues its successful career this year under the direction of Joseph F. Lechnyr of Burlington. The first call for membership was given out to the men's college early in the fall, and this year many new men responded.

The band made an impressive showing at its first appearance at the gymnasium on Middlebury Night. On this occasion it helped to give the newcomers to Middlebury some of the spirit of the college. The first out-of-town engagement of the band was at Northfield for the Norwich game.

A radio broadcast was also made from the State Capitol at Montpelier. This year's band has particularly well-balanced instrumentation, making it one of the best musical groups that Middlebury has yet produced. During Junior Week the band presents a concert on the steps of Mead memorial chapel and ends its season by leading the commencement procession.

The college orchestra, directed by Alfred Larsen, is formed by those students proficient in the playing of some musical instrument. It provides excellent training in orchestral work, giving background for those intending to teach music. It also develops appreciation for fine music. Rehearsals are held weekly and programs of classical music are presented each year.

The Glee Club is one of the most popular and representative organizations of the men's college. Rehearsals start promptly after college opens and as membership is granted to freshmen a large number try out for the positions available. After intensive training during the fall and winter months the club is ready for public appearance in the spring. Concerts are given every year in several states and the club is well received by its audiences. Middlebury has been a member of the Intercollegiate Glee Club Association of New England for eight years and has always placed high in the annual contest, having once secured third place in the national finals. This year, however, a misunderstanding prevented the club from competing.

During the past season thirteen concerts, a home recital and two radio broadcasts were presented by the club. Four states were visited on two trips, each of a week's duration. The contest was held this year in Springfield and many of the leading colleges in New England took part. On the afternoon of February 22 the singers broadcast from station WEEI, Boston, and on March 20 from station WJZ, New York City. An interesting feature of the New York trip was the concert given at International House, Columbia university's home for foreign students. The members of the club have Sunday night supper with these students before the concert, thereby forming many interesting contacts.

A Tempo Club

The A Tempo club is an organization for those members of the junior and senior classes of the women's college who have taken courses in the music department and are interested in the musical activities of the college. The aim of the club, which was founded in 1929, is to give its members who intend to continue musical work, especially in teaching, a chance to practice before others.

Mr. Lansing V. Hammond, the club advisor, and other members of the faculty, aid the students in presenting programs, which include a study of the best composers and their works, and discussion of musical problems in high schools and other groups.

This year the A Tempo club has co-operated with the Student Government association in presenting Friday afternoon musicales in Mead Memorial chapel. The students who present these are not necessarily members of the organization, but are interested and talented in vocal or instrumental music. The club, with the social committee of the Student Government association, has also presented a series of musical programs during the year.

Men's Debating

The Middlebury debating team began its season this year with an encounter against Oriel College of Oxford University, the debate being held at Middlebury, October 31. Middlebury won by a 2 to 1 decision. The second contest was against St. Lawrence University, the result being a 3-0 vote for Middlebury. Following this, an encounter with Keene Normal School added a third victory to the season’s record.

Tufts college and Boston university were met on a short two-day trip, December 15 and 16. A co-educational debate was held at Vergennes grange, March 9, and on the 14, the Middlebury freshmen debated with the Vermont first-year men. The varsity debate with Union college the same day was in the nature of a radio broadcast over station WGY. On March 17, Middlebury was host to New York University at a home contest, after which a return engagement was fulfilled on a trip which included also Rhode Island State college, New Jersey College for Women, and New York State teachers college. A debate was held with Brothers college on the evening of April 17, and the season was terminated a week later by a contest with the University of Vermont, held at Middlebury.

Among the questions used by the team were the cancellation of war debts, the failure of democracy, and the necessity of government control of industry.

Women’s Debating Club

Fourteen colleges were met in debate this year by the women’s debating team, including Keene Normal school, University of Buffalo, William and Mary, Boston university, Pembroke college, Rhode Island State, New York State teachers college, and Bates. Two subjects of debate which proved popular were, "Resolved: That the United States should cancel the war debts owed it by its former allies" and, "Resolved: That Japan’s action in Manchuria is justifiable."

Professor Perley C. Perkins again assumed his duties as debating coach, after being absent last year on sabbatical leave. He was assisted in various phases of his work by the debating council, which was composed of Professor Vernon C. Harrington, Professor Russel G. Sholes, Professor Raul Rusby, Professor Ennis B. Womack, and Professor Reginald L. Cook. This group selected, at the beginning of the season, three women from among those trying out to debate on the varsity team. Mary C. Hastings, '36, Katharine L. Kelley, '36, and Barbara T. Wishart, '36, were selected from the large number of competitors. This year a new system was inaugurated whereby sophomores try out for the position of assistant manager.
English Club

The English club is an honorary society limited to those who have received high grades in English and American literature, or have shown some creative ability. The club seeks to promote interest in literature, and to further this end sponsors the Saxonian, the college literary publication.

Regular monthly meetings are held at the home of President Paul D. Moody. Members of the faculty, students, and guest speakers address the club from time to time.

Der Deutsche Verein

Die Zusammenkünfte finden möglichst vierzehntägig statt. Der Verein ist der "Interscholastic Federation of German Clubs" angeschlossen, der etwa hundert Vereine im ganzen Lande angehört.

Es gehört zur Tradition des Vereins, am Sonntagmorgen vor den Weihnachtsferien vor den Häusern der Professoren im Morgengrauen deutsche Weihnachtslieder zu singen. Seinen Abschluss findet dieses Singen vor und in dem Hause des Präsidenten.

Die Voritzenden wurden für das laufende Jahr provisorisch durch den Leiter der Abteilung bestimmt und ernannt. Von nun an werden jedes Jahr in der ersten Sitzung zu Anfang des Schuljahres die Wahlen durch die Vereinsmitglieder stattfinden. Mitglied ist jeder Student (und jede Studentin), der (oder die) sich für die deutsche Sprache interessiert oder eine deutsche Vorlesung belegt hat und den festgesetzten Mitgliedsbeitrag bezahlt hat. Le Cercle Français

Le Cercle Français est un club ouvert à toutes les jeunes filles et à tous les jeunes gens du collège. Son but principal est de donner aux étudiants l'occasion de parler et d'entendre parler la langue française. Il est affilié à "l'Alliance Française," organisation internationale.

Les réunions ont lieu une fois par mois dans le Grand Salon du Château. Pendant l'année il y a des programmes intéressants, qui sont d'éducation aussi bien que divertissants. La première réunion en octobre consiste toujours en un pique-nique à Chipman Hill. Les soirées pendant l'hiver sont quelquefois de musique, quelquefois des pièces, et quelquefois des jeux auxquels les étudiants participent. Les réunions offrent une occasion pour les étudiants qui ne demeurent pas au Château de gagner l'expérience de grande valeur dans la conversation française.

The Mountain Club

The Mountain club, Middlebury's newest organization, was founded in March, 1931, for the purpose of taking advantage of the extensive mountain campus. Since that time it has obtained such interest and popularity that it is now one of the largest organizations in college.

Students and faculty are eligible for membership. Organized hikes and outings to nearby lakes and hills, including snowshoe trips during the winter, are sponsored by the club. The increase in its membership has afforded means of purchasing more hiking equipment which may be borrowed by the members at any time for individual trips.

A minimum of one outing every three weeks and one overnight hike a year are chartered. An annual feature is a trip to the Maple Sugar camp at Noble's farm, which takes place in March or early April.

The business of the club is carried on by an executive board composed of seven officers elected by the members.

The Black Panthers

Music for the majority of social functions at Middlebury is furnished by the Black Panthers, the student dance orchestra. At gym informals, fraternity and sorority formals, and dances sponsored by various organizations, it is this organization which provides the necessary rhythm. Frequently its members play together in smaller ensembles at fraternity informals.

Membership is open to members of the men's college who possess ability to play popular music. Weekly rehearsals are held in addition to the regular engagements. During the year the group played not only for Middlebury functions, but also filled out-of-town engagements, including a radio broadcast from station WDEV. In previous years, the Panthers have played together during the summer months on trans-Atlantic liners.

Included in the personnel of the orchestra are Collins, '34, McLure, '34, Elmer, and Preble, saxophones; White, '34, trombone; Stedman, '34, drums; Schoonmaker, '34, trumpet; Munford, '34, bass; and Zwack, '34, piano.

Wig and Pen

Wig and Pen is the honorary dramatic society of the college. Its purpose is to further interest in drama among the students. Active interest and the completion of a minimum amount of work in dramatics qualify the students for membership.

For the purpose of promoting activity in Wig and Pen and advancing its standing among the other honor organizations, several changes have been made in its constitution. A student president now heads the society, and new eligibility requirements have been adopted. An annual Wig and Pen play and a dinner dance are events sponsored by the organization.

Dramatics

The active interest in the Little Theater movement, which is evident in every college today, is intensified at Middlebury because of the dependence upon college talent for entertainment along dramatic lines.

This very condition has made the drama department keenly alive to its responsibility to bring before the student body plays of first importance done in a finished manner. To do this requires the training of groups in various techniques such as scenery designing and construction, lighting, coaching and stage participation. This is made possible by the equipment of the college playhouse with laboratory facilities for experimentation under the direction of Professor V. Spencer Goodreds.

In addition to the performances open to the general public, Professor Goodreds has developed the plan of giving one-act plays for student audiences as projects in educational dramatics with major emphasis on the process.

The work at the playhouse is actively supported by the Dramatic club, which is open to all. Membership in the club carries the privilege of free admission to all one-act plays and reduced prices for longer plays.

On October 20 and 21, George Bernard Shaw's brilliant satire, "Candida," opened the '32-'33 season. The sparkling lines and interesting situations were cleverly brought out by the intelligent acting of the cast, which included Barbara Perkins, '35, as Candida, Franklin Butler, '33, as the Reverend Morell, Emery Hutchins, '34, as the father of Candida, Kingsley Smith, '33, as Marchbanks, Marion Russell, '35, as Prossy and Howard Munford, '34, as Lexy.

The first program of experimental plays, "The Boy Comes Home," by A. A. Milne, and "Knock Three Times," by Donald Davis, was presented November 15. The first play is concerned with the adjustment of a war veteran to society on his return home. The second shows the difficulties of a young married couple in acclimating themselves to their new environment.

"The Thrice Promised Bride," a Chinese play by Chang-Chin Hsiung, and a George Cohan farce, "Common Clay," were given on November 24. The staging and costuming of the Chinese play were especially noteworthy and "Common Clay," a courtroom scene done in syncopated time, proved to be an amusing novelty.

On December 13 the second group of experimental plays was offered. This group included "The Stronger" by August Strindberg and "Mrs. Adis" by Sheila Kaye-Smith. "The Stronger" deals with a brief interval in the lives of two actresses, only one of whom does any talking, while "Mrs. Adis" is a play of intense action in which Mrs. Adis unwittingly aids the murderer of her husband.

The second program of one-act plays was presented on February 2 and 3. The first, "Where the Cross is Made," was a typical O'Neill drama, a matter of moods. The atmosphere created by the very adequate setting and stage mechanics helped the cast in its difficult task. Julia Sitterly, '33, as Sue, used admirable restraint and provided effective contrast to the sustained drama of Earl Gove, the comedy of Eugene Hoyt and the matter-of-factness of Charles Deedman. The second play, "How He Lied to Her Husband," is Shaw at his most amusing. The small cast, Barbara West, '34, Lewis Allbee, '36, and Emery Hutchins, '34, made the most of each situation and delighted the student audience.

In the third presentation of experimental plays a romantic dialogue and a short drama were included. The dialogue was "The Marriage Has Been Arranged," by Alfred Sutro, and the drama, "Rondo," by Bertha Ochsner.

"Three Faces East" by Francis Kelly, a mystery drama set in the time of the World War, was given March 21 and 22. The cast was:

ATHLETICS
The Athletic Council

Control of all athletic activities in the men's college is vested in the Athletic council, composed of the director of athletics, four faculty members, and six undergraduates, the latter being the captains of the five major sports and of the minor sport in season. Managers of varsity sports are members of this group ex officio.

The duties of the Athletic council include the awarding of insignia, the recognition of all appointments to captaincies and managements, the approval of schedules for intercollegiate sports, the carrying out of the program of intramural contests, and the control of all funds used for athletic purposes. Meetings are called at the discretion of the officers for the transaction of any necessary business.

Victories over the University of Vermont and Norwich University brought the Green Mountain Conference football championship to Middlebury for the fourth straight year and provided a fine climax for one of the most successful campaigns which the Blue and White has waged in some time. The Panthers also defeated Williams and Ithaca, but dropped the remaining four games.

During the past season, Middlebury scored 86 points against its opponents' 126, and was shut out twice while scoring the same number of shutout victories. One of the strongest lines in years provided a stiff defense against all opponents and gave the veteran backfield a chance to show its wares. Under the tutelage of Coaches Beck and Gillson, Middlebury gave an excellent account of itself throughout the season.

Although such men as MacLean, Yeomans, Hartrey, Hoyle, Corliss, Lovell, Sorensen, and Roberts have played their last collegiate game, others will return to provide material for another potential state championship outfit. Good reserves from this year's squad and members from the 1936 freshman team will report next September, ready to start another season.

Columbia

Journeying to New York for the opening game of the season with Columbia, Middlebury went down to defeat before the powerful Lions by a 51-0 score. The Panthers were bottled up completely on the offense. The Blue and White line, although hopelessly outweighed, put up one of the finest battles of any team in recent years under the splendid playing of Captain MacLean at one of the tackle positions.

Tufts

Showing quite definitely the effects of the hard-fought game at Columbia, Middlebury dropped a close contest to Tufts at Medford. The winners scored in the first and third periods while the only real Blue offense did not come until the final quarter. The Jumbos booted the oval between the uprights from the twelve-yard line in the first quarter and then added a touchdown in the third period with an end run from the thirty-two-yard stripe. The Panthers had the ball in enemy territory during the closing minutes of the game after a series of passes featuring Hartrey, Sorensen, Yeomans and Boehm. Neither team threatened after the halting of this last drive by the Middlebury eleven.
Massachusetts State

An aerial attack that bewildered Middlebury enabled the Massachusetts State college eleven to fight its way to a 13-6 victory over the Panthers in the first home game of the season. Middlebury scored early in the first period as the result of a pass from Hoyle to Hartrey that was good for twenty-three yards and a touchdown. The Blue and White outplayed its rivals at this stage of the game but failed to take advantage of several other scoring opportunities.

Meanwhile the visitors managed to count twice by their passing attack, interspersed with short runs by the elusive Louis Bush. In the first home game of the season, Middlebury showed a weakness against forward passes but appeared to be strong on the defense as a whole. The attack was carried out smoothly with the ball toting of Hartrey and Boehm featuring.

Williams

Outplaying and outguessing their opponents in every department of the game, the Blue and White football machine rolled over a heavier Williams aggregation by a score of 18-7. This was the best played game of the season from Middlebury's viewpoint, and the Williamstown invasion resulted in fifteen first downs for the Panthers to the Purple's eight.

Hoyle scored the first touchdown midway in the second period from the twelve-yard line after the ball had been advanced the length of the field by lateral passes and off-tackle smashess. Hartrey tallied in the final quarter on a lateral from Yeomans and Boehm added another score when he went through tackle for twenty yards. The final period found Middlebury uncorking a series of laterals, forwards and reverses that had the Bay Staters all at sea.

Williams made one serious threat in the third quarter which ended with the Panthers taking the ball on downs on their own four-yard line. The losers' score came in the final stanza after the damage had all been done.

Ithaca

Still showing its winning ways, Middlebury ran up a 25-7 victory over Ithaca College in the second home game of the season. The Panthers were superior in every department of the game, totaling twenty-three first downs against the Ithaca eleven's five. The score was held down by the splendid punting of Sawyer, Ithaca halfback. Hoyle and Boehm were the most effective on the offense while the Middlebury line played a heads-up game and the reserves were given an ample chance to see what they could do.
Clarkson Tech

In a bruising, savagely-fought game, the Middlebury gridsters were overcome by a strong Clarkson Tech team, at the latter's field in Potsdam by a score of 39-6. It was apparent that the opponents had a thorough knowledge of the Panther plays before the game was well under way. The game was very rough and marked by frequent injuries. The Clarkson team scored three times as a result of intercepted laterals. The lone Blue and White tally came in the final period when Williams carried the ball across. Although the opponents were undeniably powerful, particularly in the style of game which they employed, the score does not give a true indication of the relative strength of the two teams.

Norwich

Playing without the services of Hartrey, Yeomans and Reid, the Middlebury Panthers crushed Norwich 24-0 at Northfield and opened the state series auspiciously.

The entire forward wall was like stone, with MacLean and Riccio leading the attack on either side of the line and breaking through many times to break up Maroon plays. On the defense, the line held for no gain repeatedly, forcing the opponents to an aerial game which was promptly broken up by an alert quartet in the backfield.
Middlebury scored in each of the first three quarters, the first coming in the opening period when Riccio blocked a punt on the Norwich twenty-six-yard line and Roberts fell on the ball. Collins carried the ball across after a succession of plunges. The next march down the field found Boehm scoring on a pass from Williams. Again in the second stanza Hoyle intercepted a pass on his own goal line and ran it down to the Panthers' eleven-yard stripe. A short pass, Williams to Roberts, brought the third score. Another interception came in the third quarter when Collins ran the oval back seventy-five yards from the Middlebury twelve-yard line. Boehm drove over the center for the touchdown. The best Norwich threat reached the Blue and White fourteen-yard line in the second period.

Norwich was undoubtedly not up to the standard of former Maroon teams but no less credit is due the Panthers for the heads-up football which they exhibited under the leadership of Williams. One of the bright spots of the game was the way in which the reserves took care of their assignments both on the offense and the defense.

Vermont

For the fourth successive year, the annual battle between the ancient rivals, Vermont and Middlebury, ended with the Blue and White forces prevailing, this time to the tune of 7-0. The Green and Gold having defeated Norwich 19-0, as compared with Middlebury's total of twenty-four points.
against the same team, figured that it had the best chance in several seasons to take the Panthers into camp.

After an exchange of punts in the opening period in which Middlebury lost ground, Cook, Vermont tackle, blocked one of Yeomans’ punts and fell on the oval on Middlebury’s twenty-yard line. The Catamounts failed to penetrate the stubborn Blue and White defense, although the remainder of the half found the ball in Middlebury territory most of the time.

Midway in the third period, Middlebury took advantage of the one big break of the game when Riccio knocked down one of Beckley’s punts on the Vermont twenty-five-yard line, and Captain MacLean recovered the ball on the eleven-yard stripe. The Panthers, who had been on the defense all afternoon, went beserk, as Boehm, carrying the ball, tallied in his third attempt at the line. Corliss booted the ball over the crossbar for the extra point.

In the final quarter, Vermont launched a desperate attempt to even the count by a series of well executed forward passes featuring Beckley, Saba, and Lanahan. Six successive first downs brought the losers to the Middlebury ten-yard line, but here the rally lost its force in incompleted passes.

There was too much at stake to make the game spectacular, but nevertheless, the hard, defensive game had the spectators on edge until the final whistle. In first downs, the Vermont team, as the result of their forward passing attack, garnered eleven to Middlebury’s seven.

When it was all over, however, there could be no doubt that Middlebury had again earned the title of Vermont state football champion.
The light but plucky '36 team, encountering strong aggregations throughout the season, succeeded in sharing honors with its opponents by winning two and losing two games. A 27-0 loss to Clarkson Tech and a 13-7 loss to Green Mountain College were offset by an 8-6 win over Montpelier seminary, and a 7-0 victory over the ancient rivals, the Vermont Frosh. Of the four games in the season only one was played on the home grounds.

The team was well-balanced, excellently coached, and showed an ample supply of spirit. Throughout the season the squad remained fairly constantly about the number of thirty-five, and of these, twenty received class numerals. Two assistant managers also received the honors.

After two weeks of practice the team played its opener with Clarkson Tech freshmen at Potsdam. Clarkson scored early in the first period, but for the next two sessions the teams appeared fairly evenly matched. In the final stanza, however, by a series of lucky breaks, the Engineers gathered three more touchdowns. A blocked kick, an intercepted pass, and a completed pass accounted for the resulting score of 27-0.

A week later, on October 15, the Frosh encountered the team representing Montpelier seminary, on Porter field. The game was characterized by a great deal of rough and tumble, and there were a number of penalties for both sides. Towards the last of the game the officials had difficulty in keeping matters under control. The Panther cubs scored first, early in the second quarter. The Seminary boys, after being driven deep into their own territory, were forced to punt. The kick was blocked and... recovered in the end-zone where the runner was thrown for a safety. The Middlebury touchdown was scored in the third period on another blocked kick which was recovered and run over by Hoxie. Montpelier’s score came in the final quarter by a nicely executed pass from Conti to Coviello. The final score stood 8-6 in favor of the Middlebury yearlings.

On October 22 the Frosh traveled to Burlington for the annual battle with the U. V. M. yearlings. Fighting hard throughout the game, the Panther cubs were able to score but one touchdown against the rugged defense of the Green and Gold. U. V. M. showed poor offensive, their only threat appearing early in the first quarter when a Middlebury punt was blocked on the 18-yard line. A fumble and a penalty pushed them back out of scoring distance, and the Kittens lost the ball on downs. Middlebury’s score came in the second period after a series of completed passes from Leete with Forbush and Clonan on the receiving end, the latter stepping across the goal stripe to score, and Leete kicked the extra point.

On November 5 the Frosh were downed in the final game of the season by a powerful Green Mountain junior college team at Poultney. This was by far the strongest team the Midd yearlings met in the season. The down-staters drew first blood by scoring after a march from midfield. Wells ran the ball over from Middlebury’s 20-yard line, but failed to gain the extra point.

Middlebury scored in the second period after Hoxie had recovered a kick blocked by Forbush. Lyon took the ball through left tackle for the touchdown and place-kicked the extra point. Pietrika scored for Green Mountain six minutes before the final whistle on a sweeping end run. The game ended with Midd desperately throwing passes in an attempt to score again, but the advance was stopped at midfield.

The Season

Middlebury was represented by a basketball team which made a very creditable showing although it reached its highest potentialities only at one or two points. With a hard 16-game schedule, Coach Beck was faced with the task of finding the best scoring combination at the forward positions, as the guard positions seem to be well taken care of by letter men from the previous quintet. At midyear, the squad was strengthened by the addition of three freshmen. The final game with Vermont found the teams tied for first place in the state series, each with four wins and one loss. The Blue and White dropped this important encounter to the Catamounts and so finished the season second in the Green Mountain Conference race.

Ithaca

The campaign was opened at home in a very fast game with the Ithaca college quintet, and the Middlebury team ended on the short end of a 39-33 score. Baumgartner was high scorer for the Panthers with nine points while Corliss was close behind with seven. Both teams displayed excellent passing and floor-work. Middlebury outscored the visitors in the second half but was not quite able to overcome an early lead.

Upsala

Middlebury opened its annual Christmas trip successfully with a nip-and-tuck 39-37 victory over Upsala at East Orange. This was the first defeat of the season for the New Jersey team. The Blue and White entered the last half with score against them 22-19. The contest immediately became fast and rough with a great deal of fouling. Upsala tied the count with a free throw with thirty-five seconds to go, making the score 37-all, but McKenzie followed this with a basket just before the final whistle, and clinched the game. Sweet was high scorer for Middlebury with 16 points while Embler was next with 10.

Rutgers

The next game against Rutgers found the opposition stronger and the home team was able to pile up a margin of 20 points, the result being a 50-30 score. The Blue and White squad was handicapped considerably by a small epidemic of colds. The first half found the Panthers trailing by a score of 24-17. By virtue of a fast, short-passing attack the Scarlet pulled away after half-time. Middlebury was forced to resort to long shots but could not locate the net often enough to make an impression on the margin. Captain Corliss was high scorer for the game with ten points.

Rider

The third game of the trip at Rider found the team somewhat tired from the two previous hard games but the result was hotly contested until late in the game when Rider pulled away to a 42-30 victory. The Blue and White held on to a 2-point lead during the first half, but failed to capitalize on their scoring opportunities as the game progressed. The Rider quintet was exceptionally tall; and, two speedy forwards, Kipperman and Reichart, garnered 27 points between them. Baumgartner was able to find the basket most consistently for Middlebury with 11 points.

Stamford

After a rest over the week-end, a rejuvenated basketball team played the University Club at Stamford to a standstill and dropped the game in the last two minutes of play, 40-33. The opponents presented an array of former college stars who exhibited a fine brand of basketball. The lead was juggled back and forth throughout the first half until the period ended with score 20-18 in favor of Stamford. The second half found Middlebury going slowly ahead only to lose the contest in the final minutes. Corliss again led the Blue and White scorers with 12 points.

Massachusetts State

Middlebury opened up the annual Massachusetts trip by losing a game to a fast-moving Mass. State aggregation by a score of 48-31. It was shown that the team was handicapped when it could not muster a defense that would match its scoring power. Lojko and Bush of the opposition proved very elusive and dropped the ball in from all angles. The Middlebury scoring was fair with the points well distributed, but the defense could not cope with the Mass. State forwards. Captain Corliss tossed in 8 points during the fray.
Providence

The powerful, smooth functioning Providence college courtmen experienced little difficulty in subduing the Middmen 64-31 in the second game of the trip. The Blue and White was again weak on the defense and unable to find a formula that would work against fast scoring plays. The winners possessed a great deal of class and held the upper hand at all times. Several peculiarities of the court contributed to the score but nevertheless it was evident that the team was below par. Chalmers, MacKenzie and Corliss divided the scoring honors with 6 points each.

Northeastern

The Panthers took advantage of this opportunity to redeem the trip by taking Northeastern into camp by a score of 43-35. The team clicked in this game and gave evidence of hidden strength, both on the offense and defense. Embler showed a keen eye for the hoop, hanging up 12 points before the contest was over. Sweet was also in fine form and managed to sink four field goals and two fouls for a total of 10 points.

Arnold

The basketball forces, playing their second home game of the season and the last game of the semester, succumbed to a clever Arnold College five by 47-39 score. The crowd was kept on edge by the uncertain lead which was passed back and forth with every basket. The long distance shooting of the visitors enabled them to pull away in the final minutes of the game. Middlebury forged to the front early in the second half, but the defense slowed up enough to allow the visitors to get set for the long shots. Sweet played a spectacular game for Middlebury, garnering 19 points.

Norwich

The Panthers won the first state series game of the season over Norwich, easily defeating the Horsemen 47-29. Middlebury started the game with three freshmen in the line-up and jumped off to an early lead which was never relinquished. The shift in personnel found Clonan jumping, Sweet and Leete at the forward positions and Corliss and Lyon in the back-court. The first half was slow but the second period was marked by a Norwich spurt which almost closed the gap in scoring. The Blue defense was excellent. Corliss and Clonan led the attack with 13 and 12 points respectively.

St. Michael’s

A rejuvenated basketball team ran its winning streak to two games when the strong St. Michael’s team was defeated at the McCullough gymnasium 41-26. The precision and speed of the Middlebury attack bewildered the opposition and the home team got off to a 12-3 lead. The Middmen continued to raise the score in spite of very close guarding. The count was 23-7 at the half. The visitors put on a spectacular rally in the second half but could not come any closer than 7 points to the fast moving Panthers. Middlebury again drew away with a barrage of field goals and put the game on ice. Sweet and Clonan found the hoop most consistently with 14 and 10 points respectively.

Lowell Textile

The Middmen returned to action against a speedy Lowell Tech quintet on the home floor and apparently suffered from a slight letdown although managing to eke out a 32-30 victory. The offense was not breaking quite as fast as in the St. Michael’s game. The visitors missed a great number of shots which looked easy. The Blue and White led at halftime 15 to 12. The fireworks came in the second half when both teams began to find the basket. It was the fine shooting of Baumgartner that kept Middlebury in the running, the latter garnering 15 points.
Vermont

Playing their third state series game and the last game of the season at home, Middlebury dropped a loosely-played contest to Vermont 33-29. The game was keenly contested and the lead changed hands many times. Middlebury spoiled many excellent scoring opportunities due to repeated fumbling. The game was featured by very close officiating. With the score 33-24 in favor of the Catamounts, Middlebury uncorked a rally that just fell short of evening the count. Both teams were well balanced and there were no outstanding stars.

Norwich

Middlebury remained in the running for the state title by a 33-28 victory over Norwich at Northfield in the fourth Green Mountain conference game. With two hard games still to come, Coach Beck elected to start his second string team, and when they left at the end of the third quarter, they had built up a substantial lead. When the first team was injected into the fray, Norwich surprised by staging a comeback which brought them within two points of a tie. The Panthers tightened up immediately and maintained a narrow margin to the end. Embler was high scorer for Middlebury with 9 points.

St. Michael's

The Middmen earned the right to meet Vermont for state honors by taking over St. Michael's at Winooski, 34-28. The Blue showed an encouraging return to the form that had given them victories in the early state encounters. An early lead of 14-3 was run up and although it was decreased it was not seriously threatened. With a safe margin the winners let down slightly in the second half and St. Michael's was allowed to crawl up, and a last-ditch rally made the game look closer than it really was. Sweet and Clonan tallied 10 points each for Middlebury.

Vermont

Middlebury closed the campaign by dropping the final game to Vermont at Burlington, 37-20. With this defeat went the last chance to win the state title. After leaving the floor half-time with the score tied at fourteen-all, Middlebury went down before a furious Green and Gold onslaught, and was unable to sink more than 6 points in the second half. The game was very rough and marked by many fouls. Middlebury could not cope with the rugged game that Vermont exhibited, and in consequence of the roughness found its passing attack null and void. Vermont capitalized fully on all the breaks while Middlebury failed to make all opportunities count. This was the last collegiate game for Captain Corliss, MacKenzie, Hoyle, and Embler.

The Season

Faced with the most difficult schedule ever attempted by a Middlebury hockey team, and with three of last year's stars to be replaced, the Blue and White sextet completed the season in a creditable manner. The record of the 1933 pucksters is one which presents difficulties in forming a fair judgment. Although only two games were won and although against Yale and Dartmouth the team did not show at all well, the results of the Princeton game showed that the team did have potentialities. Poor ice was a constant handicap to the puck chasers who were forced to enter many contests without sufficient practice. Williams and Colgate were victims of the Panthers, while Yale, Dartmouth, Massachusetts State, Union, and Princeton scored wins.

At the start of the season, Captain Yeomans, MacLean, Dwyer, Melbye, Pickens, and Swett were the only available letter men. Allen and Hickcox were the two candidates for goalie and alternated in the nets throughout the season, with the latter seeing the most service. Until the end of the first semester, the Blue club was handicapped by lack of reserve material, but several freshmen reported after mid-years and greatly strengthened the team. Three first-year men, in fact, saw enough service to win their letters.

Although no men on the team could be considered to be as outstanding as were Makela and Nelson of last year's club, Captain "Red" Yeomans played good consistent hockey and co-operated well with his teammates at all times. Aggressiveness was one of the chief characteristics of the work of "Slats" Dwyer, leader of next season's sextet. His fighting spirit and stickhandling ability caused him to be shifted from defense to wing early in the season. "Cy" Melbye, playing his second year as first string center, maintained his reputation as a heady and skillful player by the manner in which he filled his post throughout the season. "Knobby" Clark, keystone man in the second line, gave a good account of himself and saw plenty of action. At the close of the season, he was being flanked by two freshman wings, Dawes and "Cub" Swett, both of whom proved to be promising candidates.

Panther opponents, on their way down the ice, frequently encountered "Scotty" MacLean and usually such encounters resulted in a decided slowing down of their advance. In addition to his strong defensive play, the veteran defenseman often joined in the attack and his long shots sometimes proved troublesome to opposing goalies. "Phil" Swett played beside "Scotty" in all of the early contests and helped him to check enemy wings. When freshmen became eligible after mid-years, "Chub" MacLean joined his brother in patrolling the defense zone and proved to be a good prospect to replace "Scotty" next season. "Chow" Hickcox, who alternated with "Dick" Allen in the nets, showed steady improvement during the year, and in the Princeton game especially showed very creditable form.

Union College

The season was opened against Union College at Middlebury January 14, after two previously scheduled games had been postponed. The Blue and White pucksters dropped this encounter by a 3-1 count. Flashes of brilliant individual hockey marked the contest, with the work of Young of Union being the feature of the game. MacLean, in addition to his excellent play on the defense, scored his team's single point with a fast shot from the blue line.

During the first two periods, the forward lines of both teams well held in check, but early in the final canto, the invaders drew blood when Jenkins scored from a melee in front of the net. Young scored the next point on a pretty solo dash, and after MacLean's tally, he again broke away to complete his team's total. The Panthers felt the lack of reserves in this game. Yeomans and Melbye led the Blue offense which constantly threatened the Garnet goal, but which failed to click at crucial times.

Yale

Coach Nelson's charges met their most decisive defeat of the year at the hands of the strong Yale sextet. Gilligan led the Eli pucksters to a 12-0 victory on their home indoor rink. Lack of practice and lack of sufficient reserves were contributing factors to the large score.

The home team opened their attack with the initial whistle, tallying four times in the first twelve minutes of play. The scoring continued at rather regular intervals during the second and third cantos, until the Eli six had chalked up an even dozen counters. Due to the overwhelming superiority of their opponents, the Middlebury offense had little chance to show its wares.

Massachusetts State

In the first game in which freshmen were eligible, the Panthers bowed to Massachusetts State on McCullough rink by a 3-2 count. Poor ice handicapped the play of both teams, slowing down the attack and preventing teamwork. The score at the end of the second period was 2-2, but a shot from a tangle in front of the Blue net resulted in the winning counter for the Bay State club.

Clark and Dwyer scored for Middlebury, while Cain tallied twice and Corcoran once for the invaders. "Scotty" MacLean was again outstanding on the defense, while the frosh skaters showed well for their first appearance with the varsity. In the final minutes of play, Coach Nelson sent six men down the ice in a desperate effort to knot the count, but the Red and White sextet was too strong.

Colgate Club

Breaking into the win column by a 4-3 triumph over the Colgate hockey club on their home ice, the Panthers displayed the best hockey that they had played up to that date. The game seesawed between the rival outfits, with Middlebury leading 2-1 at the end of the first period, and with the Maroon forging into a 3-2 lead at the end of the second canto.

Clark led the Blue scoring with a brace of goals, while "Scotty" MacLean and Dwyer accounted for the remaining points. Wheeler was outstanding for the visitors, with two goals and an assist to his credit. Hill, Maroon net-guardian, had plenty of opportunity to display his skill, for the Panther forwards displayed a strong attack which carried the puck into the scoring zone very frequently.
Princeton

Although bowing to Princeton 3-1, the invading Middlebury sextet displayed some of its best hockey form of the past season against the Tigers. All of the scoring occurred in the first third, with Lane, Glazebrook, and Tiers scoring before Melbye took a pass from Yeomans and tallied in the prettiest play of the evening. In the final two periods the home team was forcing the battle but the MacLean brothers, ably seconded by the good work of Hickcox in the cage, kept the Tigers at bay. Penalties hindered the Panther offense during the final cantos.

Williams College

Another victory was chalked up at the expense of Williams, when the Blue pucksters defeated the Purple sextet 2-1 at Williams. Teamwork on the part of the Panthers was the best of the season and the home team was outclassed throughout the contest, despite the heroic work of Webb, Williams’ goalie. After two periods of fast but scoreless hockey, the Purple drew first blood. Coach Nelson’s charges, immediately retaliated, however, when Melbye took a pass from Clark and flicked the rubber past Webb. Yeomans scored the winning goal with Dwyer and MacLean assisting.

Alumni

The forward line of the '30-'31 team returned to show the undergraduates how to play hockey, for with reserve defensemen and goalie they trounced the varsity by 6-3 and 11-5 counts. Makela, now with the Boston hockey club, Coach Nelson, and Crocker, captain of the '31 club, displayed a brilliant brand of skating and puck handling in both contests.

Dartmouth

A rather inauspicious close to the season was furnished by the Dartmouth game at Hanover, which the Middlebury sextet lost by a 9-2 count. The game was close during the first two periods, but in the final period the whole team seemed to weaken and the Green pucksters tallied seven times, while “Chub” MacLean and Yeomans scored a solo goal apiece. Games with Hamilton and Colgate which were to have closed the season were finally cancelled, after being postponed due to weather conditions.

The Season

The 1932 baseball season was one of the most successful in Middlebury’s athletic history, which has been marked usually by many diamond failures. The team won nine games and lost four, sweeping the Green Mountain conference series, for the best record since 1924.

Practically the entire 1931 squad returned for practice last spring, and aided by the acquisition of new Freshman stars, Coach Hessler was able to build up the team which so well represented the Blue and White. Dependable pitching was secured, particularly from Stefaniak and Barker, and helped to make up for erratic fielding, which alone was responsible in large measure for the four defeats, three of which were suffered at the hands of teams admittedly weaker than some over which Middlebury triumphed easily.

Opening the season at Springfield, April 29, Middlebury achieved its first victory over the highly favored Gymnasts, behind the strong pitching of Stefaniak, 6-5. The following day, however, the team was able to garner only four hits and was shut out by Amherst, 7-0. Four Middlebury errors contributed to the Lord Jeffs’ score.

The first game of the state series at Winooski, May 3, saw the Panthers emerge victorious over St. Michael’s, 5-4. Anderson had a big lead going into the ninth inning, and just managed to weather a rally that resulted in three runs.

The first home game, May 6, resulted in a 9-7 victory for Middlebury over Boston university. Hard hitting in the early innings featured, together with Barker’s feat of holding the opponents to two hits in seven innings after relieving Olson. The fielding was very ragged on both sides.

The three Junior Week games resulted in two victories and one defeat. Playing the best game of the season, Middlebury defeated Vermont 2-0. Stefaniak was invincible on the mound, allowing only two hits, and his teammates played errorless ball.

A letdown occurred the following day, and Williams defeated the Blue 6-3, in a ragged game. Anderson struck out ten, but could not get through the pinches.

Behind very effective pitching by Barker, Middlebury scored its third conference victory, beating Norwich the next day, 7-3. The fielding continued poor, but the Panthers’ pitching and batting strength was more than enough to win.

Two defeats and one victory marked the second trip of the season. Middlebury defeated Brown, 2-0, May 18, behind Stefaniak’s fine pitching in his second shutout game, although the team could only get one hit, while Stefaniak allowed four.

The next day the team lost a tough game to Boston college, 5-4, in ten innings. Barker was handicapped by poor support, and B. C. finally got to him for long hits in the tenth to win. A very ragged game on May 21 went to Northeastern, 9-1. Anderson and Olson were hit hard.

The second round of the state series opened very auspiciously, with Middlebury knocking out 23 hits to win easily over Vermont 22-3, in Burlington May 24. Stefaniak took it easy while the team ran up the huge total. Zawistoski led the attack with four hits.

The Memorial Day game against Norwich at Northfield was almost a repetition of the U. V. M. game, with the Panthers triumphing 18-4. Barker pitched well, and also hit four times in the avalanche of 24 hits scored by Middlebury. Sorensen was safe five times.

With the state title already clinched, the Panthers completed the season by taking over St. Michael’s 7-2 in a listless class-day game. Stefaniak was good in the pinches and scored his fifth victory for a perfect season’s record.

The schedule for the 1933 season presents an even more difficult assignment for the team than last year’s. A total of sixteen games have been carded, and teams such as Army, Springfield, Holy Cross, and Boston college are included in addition to those which are more nearly in Middlebury’s class.

The season opened a week earlier than usual, with a four game southern trip, on which Army, Upsala, Pratt Institute, and Rutgers were met on successive days. The state series was opened against Vermont on the Catamounts home diamond. Springfield was slated to provide the opposition in the Panther’s first home appearance. St Michael’s at Winooski, Vermont and Norwich here during Junior Week, Norwich at Northfield on Memorial Day, and St. Michael’s here on Class day complete the list of state series contests scheduled.

Another four game trip into Massachusetts will find the Blue and White nine opposing Holy Cross, Boston university, Boston college, and Northeastern. Tufts will visit Porter Field on May 26 to meet Coach Nelson’s men.
In spite of the harder schedule, prospects for a successful season are not too bad. Coach Nelson will have the two star pitchers of last year, Stefaniak and Barker, back again, and with three other experienced hurlers in McDermott, Anderson, and Olson he should be able to build an exceptionally strong mound corps. The receiving end of the battery will be capably handled by Captain Hartrey, veteran of three campaigns, with Ziegler probably serving as his understudy.

Although three of last year’s infielders are again available, the make-up of the infield will be different, for Coach Nelson has been experimenting in an effort to find the strongest combination. Yeomans has been shifted from short-stop to third, Zawistoski has moved from the keystone sack to the former’s position, and Sorensen has gone from third to second. Hoehn, a Freshman, completes the inner line of defense. Coach Nelson has also developed a capable Frosh infield in preparation for coming campaigns.

The outfield is the most troublesome part of the team. Dumas is the only veteran outfielder returning, although Stefaniak and Barker are strong enough batters to warrant them patrolling the outer gardens when not on mound duty. Williams will probably continue to fill the center field post, with capable reserves available to fill the remaining berth in the event that Coach Nelson does not use his pitchers.

Coach Nelson began battery practice before spring recess and succeeded in holding intermittent outdoor practice throughout April. The shift in the infield is expected to give a smoother fielding combination than that of last year. If this fault is remedied and hard-hitting outfielders discovered to fill the shoes of Makela and Olson, the Panthers should be set for another state title and a high percentage of wins.

The Season

The Middlebury track team, slated for six meets in the 1932 season, came off the field in successful fashion after once again capturing the conference title and winning four, losing one and taking a third in the Eastern Intercollegiate meet.

Coach Brown was enabled to gain some knowledge of the ability of his men from the constant practice sessions, beginning shortly after the Christmas vacation, and from the results of the decathlon and the interfraternity relays. There were a number of veteran trackmen in the squad reporting for first outdoor practice including Captain Bibby, Roberts, Brown, MacLean, Fallon, Harwood, Reilly, and Riccio. Several promising freshmen reported to fill the shoes vacated by the graduated members of the '31 team.

In the opening dual meet of the season, the Blue and White trackmen suffered defeat at the hands of Williams college at Williams-town. The score, 74-61, while not overwhelming, served to establish the fact that while Middlebury was decidedly superior in the track events, the Blue was but poorly represented in the field. Thirty of the Panthers’ points were accounted for by Brown, Fallon, and MacLean. In the mile and two-mile runs the Middmen scored clean sweeps. Hunter, Short, and Chase took the places in the former, and Sears, Taylor, and Seymour in the latter. Lovell broke his own record in the javelin throw by a cast of 169 feet, 4½ inches.

In the first home meet, Middlebury emerged the victors over Montreal A. A., by a score of 88-47. Brown was high scorer for the Blue and White with 18 points, while MacLean amassed 15 by virtue of three first places. The character of the team’s performance in the field and weight events was somewhat improved over that shown in the meet with Williams. The Panthers scored clean sweeps in the broad jump, discus, and hammer-throw.

In the third meet of the season, also held on Porter field, Middlebury defeated the Boston university aggregation by the overwhelming score of 101-34. The team had considerable margin in both the field and track events, on the track garnering 57 points to B. U.'s 15 and in the field leading 44 to 19. Middlebury scored complete shut-outs in the quarter and mile, and took first places in the half and two-mile runs. Brown and MacLean ran true to form by amassing the majority of points for Middlebury.

During Junior Week, a team representing Middlebury participated in the Eastern Intercollegiate meet at Worcester, and against stern opposition succeeded in taking third place with a score of 34½ points. Rhode Island and Worcester Polytechnic took first and second honors with 45½ and 44½ points respectively. MacLean, Fallon, and Brown were the leading point scorers for the Blue. MacLean took first in the 120-yard high hurdles and finished second in the low hurdles. Fallon scored second place in both the 440 and the 880. Sears ran a fine two-mile race and took first, while Short gained three points for a second in the mile. In the field events, Brown took first in the broad jump, and Lovell placed second in the javelin throw.

In the Union meet on the following Saturday, Middlebury again broke into the winning column by scoring 75 points to the opponents 51. Again Brown and MacLean turned in the majority of points. In the mile run, Harwood turned in the best time of the year by winning from Short by ten yards in 4:34.6. Sears won the two-mile event in 10:01.4. Brown and Prochazka won the 100 and 220 in their best times of the season. The performance in the field events was much improved, firsts being taken by Middlebury men in each event except the high jump.

After such a series of successful dual meets, it was only to be expected that Middlebury should capture the conference title by a wide margin. With ten firsts, five seconds, and nine thirds, the Blue and White scored a total of 74 points to 32 for Norwich, and 29 for Vermont. MacLean broke the state high and low hurdles records by times of 15.8 and 25.6 seconds respectively. These marks also established new college records. Lovell bettered his own previous performances in the javelin throw and Meehan of Vermont shattered the state pole-vault record by scaling 11 feet, 9 inches. Brown and Fallon tied the state records in the 100 and 440.

For the season of 1933 there will be five meets, none being scheduled with Boston university this year. Only one of these meets, that with Montreal A. A., will be held on the home grounds.

The opener of the season will again be a meet with Williams at Williamstown. The "dope" seems to have it that Middlebury will turn in a much better performance than that of last year. Track events are much improved, and field events have been whipped into shape to at least equal the abilities in that line formerly displayed by the Purple. The Williams meet of this year is regarded as a true test of the strength of the Blue and White team.

It is expected that the Panthers will have little difficulty in capturing the meet with Montreal A. A. to be held on Porter field, May 2. The Canadian team, while having greater facilities from which to draw, has been hampered in practice due to the rigor of the winter and the tardiness of spring this year.

The prospect for Middlebury in the Eastern Intercollegiate meet is as good as it stood last year, and the Panther trackmen should be among the leaders.

The Union college meet and the Green Mountain Conference meet seem to offer little opposition for the triumph of the Blue and White. Taking all in all the prospect for this season appears to be optimistic for the Midd trackmen.

The team itself is as strong as that of last year. For every graduating member of last year’s team there has been a man of equal abilities to step into the vacant shoes. The loss of Johnnie Fallon, veteran middle-distance man, will be felt, but there are promising freshmen for these events beside Prochazka and Montgomery who have turned in good times this winter. Captain Brown has been handicapped in practice by an injured ankle, but the difficulty is disappearing under treatment, and he will soon be in condition to turn in wins in the sprints and broad jump.

The distance events are still strong with such stars as Hunter, Sears, Short, and Seymour; and the hurdle events are in good shape represented by MacLean who holds the state records, and Roberts, who has shown steady improvement.

Promising weight-men are Whitney, Riccio, and Lombardi; and the javelin is still in the capable hands of Lovell who twice in the last season broke his own record in that event.

The annual decathlon attracted a large number of entries and several very promising track candidates were discovered, especially from the freshman class. Hoxie and Forbush, both of the class of 1936, placed first and second respectively in the half-mile run. The former also placed fourth in the 60-yard dash. Cushman, yearling cross-country star, captured a second in the mile, while Seixas scored in the shot put. Other men who tallied in this contest and showed promise of being point winners for the varsity were Cady and Jocelyn in the dashes, Hoyle, Banta, and Willoughby in the hurdles, White and Taylor in the 880 and mile, and MacKenzie in the field events.

Both the decathlon and the interfraternity relays demonstrated that MacLean and Prochazka would aid the Panther trackmen in their meets, and that MacKenzie should strengthen the team in the field events. Captain Brown was able to compete in only one of the decathlon events, due to his ankle injury, but he did annex the first place in the shot put.

In summing up, it would appear that the prospect is very optimistic for the Middlebury track team of the season of 1933. The state title is practically assured, and a well-organized team for the following year is in view.

MINOR SPORTS
The 1932 tennis team, captained by A. Kirkland Sloper, '32, passed through a successful season in which six wins and five losses were scored.

The season was opened May 4 on the home courts by a match with St. Michael's in which the Blue and White easily triumphed by a score of 6-3. In the same week the Middlebury netmen beat St. Lawrence and Ithaca by scores of 5-1 and 6-0 respectively. Journeying to Worcester, the team won a match against Clark University, 6-3, but lost the other two matches in the series to Worcester Tech 6-3, and to Holy Cross 8-1. Continuing in the losing streak, the team lost to Vermont 6-3, and in an extremely well-played match, lost to Tufts by the score of 6-0. In the final three matches of the season, Middlebury beat R. P. I. at Troy, 5-4, lost again to Vermont at Burlington, 4-3, and again defeated St. Michael's, 4-1.

Totalling the scores of the Middlebury team against those collected by their opponents, the result shows 42-42, by sets, but because of the two losses to Vermont, the Blue and White relinquishes the state title to the netmen from Burlington.

In the two matches which the newly organized golf team played in 1932, one win and one tie resulted. The team was chosen in a tournament held May 10, in which eighteen men were entered. The holders of the best scores turned in were picked to represent the college, and the list below gives the names of the members of that team as the result of the tournament.

The opening match was held with Union college at Schenectady, resulting in a tie score of 3-3. At Norwich the Middlebury golfers easily triumphed by a score of 13½-1½. For the season, the Middlebury team scored a total of 16½ points against 4½ for its opponents.

The Middlebury cross-country team for the season of 1932 completed a successful year in which it scored three wins and suffered one defeat, capturing the Green Mountain Conference title.

In the first meet of the season, the team journeyed to Williamstown and conquered by a score of 23-32. Ellis of Williams finished first followed closely by seven Middlebury men headed by R. Short. The meet scheduled with St. Stephen's was cancelled. The Springfield meet resulted in a defeat for the Middlebury harriers, the score standing at 23-32. In the following meet two weeks later, Middlebury defeated the Vermont team by a perfect score of 15-40, regaining the state title lost in 1931. In the final meet with R. P. I., the Middlebury team again triumphed by a score of 23-32, thus ending a successful season.

The 1936 harriers trotted smartly over the Middlebury course to hand Vermont the worst defeat it suffered in the season. Cushman starred for Middlebury by beating out Suitor of the visitors for first place. Tilford, Meacham, and Gurnett, all of Middlebury, followed. Twitchell and Derium of Vermont led Hill and Gould of the Panthers' cubs for the next four places. Andress and Thibault, both of Vermont, took tenth and eleventh places respectively. The Middlebury freshmen hold the state title through this victory.

1932-33 Winter Sports Team

Handicapped by adverse weather conditions early in the season, the Middlebury winter sports aggregation made a very creditable showing against all opponents.

The first meet was held at Northfield with Norwich the only opposing team, although the meet was intended to be a Green Mountain Conference event. The Blue and White dropped the meet 14-11 after a close battle. Springstead, of Middlebury was high scorer with nine points. Lovell of the home team was unfortunate in wrenching a knee while leading the downhill race.

The second and final meet of the season was held at Winooski and proved to be a red-letter day for the Panther skiers. The scores by teams were: Middlebury 22, Norwich 11, Dartmouth 9, St. Michael's 5, and Vermont 2.

An unusual feature of the meet was the cross-country snowshoe race, which was won by Kelly of Middlebury. Pierce and Meacham took first places in the downhill race and the cross-country ski event respectively.

Hiking Club

The Women's Athletic Association, an organization composed of all women actively interested in athletics, supervises the program of sports for the year and promotes general participation in athletics. Hockey, the fall team game, is accompanied by archery, hiking and tennis. Volleyball and basketball are the two popular indoor sports. In the spring, come the archery and tennis tournaments, baseball, and this year, the completion of the hockey season.

Two new features were added to the 1932-33 schedule: a mixed-doubles tennis tournament, given in connection with the men's college, and another tournament in a sport new to Middlebury women — badminton.

A system of awards is followed by the association. Numerals are given to the championship class team in each sport; the players selected for places on the honorary All-Middlebury teams receive "MC" monograms; and "M" sweaters are presented to those women who have gained 1,000 points through sportsmanship, good posture, leadership and excellence in at least three sports.
Baseball

The class of '34 won another set of baseball numerals at the end of their second year in college. The juniors and seniors again were formed into one team since the baseball season, coming toward the busy close of the year, does not entice as many upperclass players from their interests as do the earlier sports. The weather was generally favorable for the games, and the field was in good condition so that a normal season was enjoyed under the leadership of Marian Ball, '33.

The three competing teams dwindled to two when the junior-senior team was routed by both underclasses. One of the two remaining teams had lost only one game in the series, so that it was not even necessary to play its last scheduled game. It was the sophomore class which again showed its athletic prowess by winning the championship title for the second time.

Basketball

It is a rare basketball season when one class consistently wins every game that it plays, but this enviable record was won in 1933 by the junior team—the same team which had won the championship the year before. As well as finishing the season undefeated, the juniors rolled up a total score of almost a hundred points more than any other competitor. They well deserved the majority of places which they received on the All-Midd team.

The basketball season, under the direction of Marian Ball, ’33, proceeded smoothly through its two rounds of games with no match postponed or shortened. The less skillful but equally enthusiastic second teams had a spirited fight for their own championship. The freshmen finally gained the lead and kept it until the spring vacation put an end to the season.

Volleyball

Each winter finds volleyball enjoying more popularity than ever before. The 1933 season, directed by Grace Wilder, '33, proved no exception. At the end of the usual two-round schedule, the players, representing both first and second teams of the four classes, voted almost unanimously to continue with a third set.

The hottest battle for supremacy was confined mainly to the two upper classes. From the first game, the juniors showed a determination to down the seniors and thus wrest from them the championship title which the latter had held for the previous two years. And win the juniors did, making the fine record of eight victories and but one defeat. The freshman second team, without losing a single game, was successful in winning the secondary championship.

Nine representatives from the first teams were chosen for the All-Midd team because of their outstanding ability in volleyball skill.

Hockey

"It may be rotten hockey, but it's heaps of fun to play in the mud." "I thought I'd die laughing when the ball splashed into that puddle by the goal." In spite of their trials on account of the weather, hockey enthusiasts enjoyed a hard-fought, and intense season. The seniors came out determined to keep the championship won last year. The other classes were equally determined to wrest it from them. Result — spirited yet friendly competition. When the first round was completed, the seniors were in the lead closely followed by the juniors. And then the weather played another trick. The ground grew so icy that future games were impossible.

Dorothy Wheaton, '33, head of hockey, made plans to have the remaining games played in the early spring. At the end of these games the annual hockey bonfire was held to close the season officially. At that time the members of the championship team were presented with their numerals. The All-Middlebury team, selection for which is based on good sportsmanship, outstanding ability, and faithfulness in keeping W. A. A. training rules, was also announced at that time.

Hiking

Much enthusiasm has been shown this year for the Hiking Club, which has been under the direction of Rosemary Faris, '34, head of hiking. Its activities were started early in the fall and included hikes to Bittersweet, the Cider Mill, and Belden's Falls. Keen appetites brought the members one frosty morning to a breakfast picnic on Chipman hill. Similar short hikes are arranged for the spring, and plans are also being made for a long trip to Snake Mountain.

To the members who carry over their interest into personal hikes, W. A. A. awards credit towards an "M" sweater. But the real aim of the club is to provide recreation for those women who enjoy walking and yet have not the time for the longer outings of the Mountain club.
Tennis

Interest in the annual spring Tennis tournament in 1932 caused many promising recruits to enter. Zavart Markarian, '33, head of the sport, emerged victorious in the finals, making it her third successive championship of the women's college, and thereby gaining permanent possession of the tennis cup which was awarded her in the fall.

In September, the women's ladder tournament afforded a renewal of interest and an opportunity for practice after the summer months, although bad weather prevented its completion.

The first mixed-doubles tournament, sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, was held in the fall. Forty-one couples participated. The teams competing in the finals were Allen Flagg, '34, Dorothy Cornwall, '33, Arnold LaForce, '35, and Zavart Markarian, '33. The first team triumphed with the score, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4, and they were awarded suitable charms. The tournament was successful and it is expected to become a permanent event.

Archery

During the last two years, archery, under the management of Carol H. McNeely, '33, has been successfully established as a permanent sport at Middlebury. This past year several new projects have increased the general interest in archery.

For the first time delegates were sent to Deerfield, Massachusetts, from June 30 to July 2, to participate in the Eastern Archery Association tournament. Colleges, clubs, and interested amateurs from all parts of the United States took part. Middlebury was represented in the women's tournament by Margaret Eaton, '33, Esther Johnson, '35, and Florence Martin, '33, who won second, third, and fourth places respectively, being defeated only by a Connecticut Agricultural College delegate.

Last spring a tournament was held during Junior Week, which was won by Frances Chaffee, '35. A similar match is scheduled for the 1933 Junior Week.

Due to unfavorable weather, there was no official archery season last fall, and consequently no fall tournament, but since February, archery practice has been resumed indoors, and future success in that field is anticipated.

The Current Social Season at Middlebury

The annual Soph Hop formally raised the curtain for this year's social season, Thanksgiving eve, November 23, at the Middlebury Inn. Burton C. Holmes, '35, directed the dance, and secured the famed Barbary Coast Pirates from Dartmouth to maintain their musical reputation. Sixty couples swore it was the best dance of the year that night.

Feeling perhaps that publications work had taken too much of their time during the first semester, the literary lights of Middlebury held sway at the Inn in their annual social splurge, the Literati Ball, January 21. H. Alan Painter, '33, was responsible for the dance. Freddy Lynch brought an orchestra all the way from Burlington, just to play.

As the last mid-year exam was being signed, the ancient order of Scullions were beginning their eleventh annual Ball, up in Hepburn hall. As usual, none but present and former waiters were invited; the Black Panthers held forth; dinner was served in the commons; and a rare spirit of camaraderie prevailed. Henry L. Newman, '33, was chairman, and guests included President Moody and Mrs. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, "Mother" Mason, Miss Dutton and Miss Bowles.

Freshmen had their innings the following Saturday night, February 4. Preferring variety, the class entrusted the Dance to the executive committee, who, headed by Kay Kelley, signed Jimmy Farnham and his Jungle Band to charm the subscribers. This colorful dance (even to the receiving line) deserves additional credit in that it was the third formal in three weeks, and a success at that.

For the first time in history, the women caught up with the men, so to speak, and presented a Scullionettes', or Ladies-in-Waiting Ball, for all campus waitresses, February 18, in sorority rooms in the Battell Block. The Black Panthers played for the dinner-dance, which began at five in the afternoon, with Carol H. McNeely, '33, in charge of affairs.

The second innovation of the social year occurred a week later, when the annual Wig and Pen Dance was transferred to the Inn, and certain guests invited. Bill Dehey was imported from Pittsfield to steal everyone's heart with his distinctive rhythms; stage-sets and programs carried out the melodrama motif; tricky lights gave the impression of gentle inebriation; and we all had the best date possible. Anthony Brackett, '33, was chairman.

The last of the specialty dances was the Spanish Carnival, March 11, at the Middlebury Inn, with Dorothy B. Wheaton, '33, in charge. The Black Panthers again appeared. Always a costume ball, the masquerade this year saw prizes go to Jean Sawyer, '36, and William H. Patterson, '34, for most beautiful apparel; and to Frederick Bryant, '33, and Elizabeth Higgins, '35, for the most original.
Acknowledgment

To all those, who by their financial support at a time when support has not been easy, and to all those, who by their advice have made possible a better KALEIDOSCOPE, the editors wish to express their sincere thanks. Especially do we wish to thank Mr. Storrs Lee, Mr. Kirkland Sloper, Mr. John A. Storm, Mr. Clark Corliss, and Mr. William Weier for their counsel; the entire staff of Baker, Jones, Hausauer, Inc. for their co-operation; Messrs. Adler, Hitchcock, Lafferty, and Linne of the Canton Engraving Company; Mr. George Ebenhek for his painstaking work in photography and Mr. Edward MacArthur of the White Studio.

The Scenic Artist
Takes No Curtain Calls

Back of the "big drop" in every theater is the man who provides the proper stage settings. His work and that of his staff is essential to the success of every play.

The task of your annual designer may be likened to that of the scenic artist. He furnishes the background on which are portrayed the achievements of the Class of 1934. He accentuates the literary brilliance of the KALEIDOSCOPE Staff through appropriate art, harmonious design, and tasteful typography. His work perpetuates the spirit of the Class of 1934.

Baker, Jones, Hausauer count it a privilege to have acted as "Scenic Artists" for the 1934 KALEIDOSCOPE. We crave no curtain calls. If we have furnished a background of unusual distinction for the outstanding performance of the Staff, we are well content.

Wear a Beautiful Balfour Ring

Companion of a Lifetime

To identify you with your fraternity in a dignified and pleasing manner. Balfour-made rings are smart, distinctive, and individual. Wear a beautiful Balfour ring.

The Triumph

is one of our latest designs. The sig- net is large, matted to give a frosted softness as a background for your coat of arms, and framed in a brightly-polished bevel to add brilliance and sparkle.
